

2017 Outdoor Track & Field Championship Preview

Posted: May 10, 2017

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. -- The Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC) Outdoor Track & Field Championships are set to take place this weekend at Hamline University in St. Paul, Minn. on May 12-13, 2017. The MIAC Championship page will feature a link to watch the all of the running events live in action, and will also provide live stats updates for all events.

| OUTDOOR TRACK & FIELD CHAMPIONSHIP PAGE | LIVE VIDEO | LIVE RESULTS |

MIAC Outdoor Track & Field Championship Details
| May 12-13, 2017 | Hamline University | St. Paul, Minn. |

| Schedule of Events | Hamline Campus Map & Directions |

Tickets: $8 for adults, $3 for students, Children 5 and under free.

Multi-Event Championships: May 4-5, 2017 | Carleton College | Northfield, Minn. |
| May 4-5 | Decathlon - Results | Heptathlon - Results |

2017 MIAC Top Performances

Throughout the winter and spring, there have been plenty of eyes focused on the tracks (and fields) around the conference on the league's talented student-athletes!

| MIAC Men's Outdoor Track & Field Performance List |

| MIAC Women's Outdoor Track & Field Performance List |

Men's 2016 Championship Recap

The University of St. Thomas claimed its fifth-straight Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC) Outdoor Track and Field Championship at Clemens Stadium on the campus of Saint John's University. The championship was No. 34 overall for St. Thomas, and the 29th since 1983.

St. Thomas scored exactly 100 points last year to boost its championship-winning total to 184 points. Saint John's kept pace and finished with 156.5 points to stay solidly in second. Hamline also topped the century mark with 108 points in third, St. Olaf's 98 points were good for fourth and Carleton scored 61 to also join the top five. Bethel was just four points behind the Knights in sixth with 57, Gustavus (55) was another two points back in seventh, Concordia scored 48 in eighth, Augsburg had 40 to finish ninth and Saint Mary's (27) and Macalester (21) completed the final 2016 standings.

Women's 2016 Championship Recap

The University of St. Thomas made it a dozen titles in a row with the team's 12th-straight championship at the 2016 Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC) Outdoor Track and Field Championships at Saint John's University's Clemens Stadium in Collegeville, Minn. The championship was the 32nd overall for the Tommies, who have now won 32 of the 35 MIAC Outdoor titles in the meet's history.

St. Thomas scored 191.3 points to nearly double up the rest of the field, with a 91.3-point lead - or more - on everyone else in the MIAC. Carleton moved up into second place on the second day with an even 100 points, and Concordia rounded out the top three with 88.8 points. Gustavus was just three points behind the Cobbers in fourth with 85, and Bethel's 76.5 points were also good for a spot in the top 10. Saint Benedict was sixth with 71 points, St. Olaf (56.3) edged Hamline (56) by less than a point for seventh, Macalester was ninth (49), St. Catherine (42) finished 10th and Augsburg (28) and Saint Mary's (12) rounded out the final standings.