Week of: 2008-11-10

Carleton College sophomore goalkeeper Pete Semmer (Del Mar, Calif./Bishop's School) recorded shutouts in both MIAC Playoff games this week, blanking St. Thomas and Augsburg. He had four saves in Carleton's 2-0 triumph over the Tommies and finished with five saves, including several key stops in keeping the finals versus Augsburg scoreless through regulation and two overtimes. Carleton won the MIAC's automatic qualifier with a 5-3 victory in a shootout. The Knights defense has allowed only six goals all season.

Alex Hildebrandt, Augsburg

Week of: 2008-11-03

Augsburg College junior defender Alex Hildebrandt (St. Paul, Minn./Highland Park) led the Auggies to their best MIAC finish since the 1980 season by recording a goal and an assist in the Auggies' decisive 4-0 win over Macalester College on Halloween. Hildebrandt anchored the Augsburg defense, which has not allowed a conference goal since October 8th (1-0 loss to Gustavus), to its league-leading seventh conference shutout. Augsburg travels to St. Peter today for a rematch in the MIAC Semifinals at 2 p.m.

Drew Lukas, Hamline

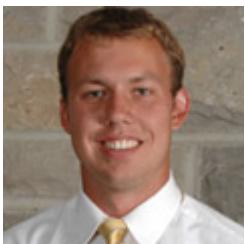

Week of: 2008-10-27

Hamline University junior forward Drew Lukas (South St. Paul, Minn./Edina) scored two goals on Saturday to help earn Hamline's 3-3 draw at St. Olaf. After St. Olaf scored to take a 2-1 lead early in the second half, Lukas answered 30 seconds later to even the score at 2-2. St. Olaf scored again in the 82nd minute to take a 3-2 lead, but Lukas scored the equalizer in the 88th minute on a volley from 18 yards.

Alex Kuehl, St. Olaf

Week of: 2008-10-20

St. Olaf College sophomore goalkeeper Alex Kuehl (Rochester, Minn./John Marshall) made five saves in a 1-0 shutout win over Gustavus, a victory that keeps the Oles alive for an MIAC Playoff berth. The win was the first over Gustavus since 2003, snapping a five-game winless streak (0-4-1). Kuehl faced 17 shots in the victory, earning his third shutout of 2008. He is now 5-1-0 this season.

and has a 0.83 goals against average.

Justin Foss, Concordia

Week of: 2008-10-13

Concordia College senior forward Justin Foss (Fargo, N.D./South) scored three goals last week and helped the Cobbers to a 1-1 record in conference play. Foss had a goal in CC's 3-2 overtime loss at Macalester on Tuesday and came back to score two goals, including the game winner, against Hamline on Saturday in Concordia's 3-0 win over the Pipers. Foss started the week by netting Concordia's first goal of the game against the Scots on Tuesday. His goal in the first half tied the game at 1-1. Foss then scored two goals against Hamline. Foss scored the game-winning goal at 38:10 to help CC to a 1-0 lead. He then added an insurance goal late in the game to help Concordia win their fifth game of the season - the most since the 2001 season. Foss now leads the conference in goals in MIAC games. He has seven goals in the team's eight league games. He has now scored at least one goal in the past five games. Foss also leads the MIAC in goals per game (0.88) and is tied for the league lead in points (16).

John Zietlow, St. Olaf

Week of: 2008-10-06

St. Olaf College sophomore midfielder John Zietlow (Rochester, Minn./Mayo) tallied two goals and one assist in the Oles 3-2 double overtime victory over Concordia last Wednesday. Zietlow assisted on the goal which tied the game at 1-1 early in the second half. He then scored the goal which tied the game at 2-2, leading to overtime. Zietlow scored the game winner with 1:32 left in the second period of extra time, securing the Ole win.

Paul Pedtke, Carleton

Week of: 2008-09-29

Carleton College senior midfielder Paul Pedtke (Evanston, Ill./Evanston Township) scored four goals last week to lead the Knights in two key MIAC victories that vaulted Carleton into first place. He scored two goals in each game and netted the game winners over St. Thomas and Gustavus. Pedtke scored his first goal of the season in the 24th minute vs. St. Thomas and added another as Carleton put the game out of reach with three goals in a seven minute span in the second half. On Saturday, Pedtke tallied both of Carleton goals in their 2-0 over Gustavus. The Knights (9-0-1, 4-0-1 MIAC) are the lone undefeated squad in the conference and are ranked #8 in the nation.

Derek Engler, St. Thomas

Week of: 2008-09-22

University of St. Thomas junior midfielder Derek Engler (Wayzata, Minn./Orono) had both goals in St. Thomas' 2-1 win over Augsburg in one of the biggest games in the MIAC last week. Both teams entered the game unbeaten in conference play and both were unbeaten in all games in 2008. Engler scored both of his goals less than nine minutes apart at the start of the first half to set the tone for the Tommie win. He scored his first goal on a high shot in the 14th minute to give UST a 1-0 lead. Engler scored again from the middle of the field in the 22nd minute to make it 2-0.

Mike Hutton, St. Thomas

Week of: 2008-09-15

University of St. Thomas first-year forward Mike Hutton (Apple Valley, Minn.) led St. Thomas to a 3-0 week and continued his impressive scoring. He scored in the second minute against Bethel in Saturday's 2-0 Tommie victory. After UST fell behind St. Scholastica 1-0 early Sunday, Hutton scored two goals in an 8:11 span to put the Toms ahead to stay in a 3-1 victory. Last Wednesday, Hutton drew a lot of attention and had no goals in UST's 2-1 overtime win over Saint John's. In six college games, Hutton has seven goals and two assists and has helped the Tommies to the program's first 6-0 start since 1977.
