

Maureen Hardwick, St. Thomas

Week of: 2005-04-26

University of St. Thomas junior Maureen Hardwick (Warroad, Minn.) fired rounds of 81 and 77 for a 158 total and an individual runner-up finish to lead the Tommies to a second-place finish at the Minnesota Collegiate Women's Golf Association State Championship this past weekend at Becker's Pebble Creek Golf Club. Hardwick was the top MIAC finisher in the field and helped St. Thomas post a two-day total of 661, 16 shots ahead of Gustavus. The two teams are battling for bids to the NCAA Championships in May. Hardwick has posted a trio of top-10 finishes this spring with a six-round stroke average of 81.50.

Kassie Wells, Carleton

Week of: 2005-04-19

Carleton College sophomore Kassie Wells (Rochester, Minn./Century HS) notched her first collegiate win and tied the tournament record at the Carleton Spring Invitational, helping the Knights to a third-place finish. The sophomore notched a first-round nine-over par 81 in rainy, windy and cold conditions, and fired a final-round 82 to overcome a three-shot deficit to win by three strokes. The Knights finished behind only national top 10 teams Gustavus and St. Thomas and defeated 18th-ranked St. Benedict in a tournament which included eight of the nine MIAC schools.

Katie Glorvigen, St. Thomas

Week of: 2005-04-12

University of St. Thomas senior Katie Glorvigen (Grand Rapids, Minn.) shot a six-over par 152 to win the Best Western Riverport Invitational by six shots this weekend, leading the Tommies to a 29-shot team victory in Winona. Glorvigen carded a one-over par 74 in the opening round and fired a final-round five-over par 78 in the victory, a key win in the Tommies' NCAA Championship hopes. The victory came on the same course where Glorvigen won individual medalist honors at the 2003 MIAC Championships.

Kelli Groff, Gustavus

Week of: 2004-10-12

Gustavus Adolphus College junior Kelli Groff (Bloomington, Minn. / Jefferson HS) fired a 14-over par 160 with consistent rounds of 80 each day to capture individual medalist honors at the 2004 MIAC Championships this weekend at Northfield's Willinger's Golf Club. Groff erased a three-stroke deficit with a final-round 80 and posted the fourth-lowest 36-hole total in MIAC Championships history. She is only the second Gustie to win individual conference champion honors. She is the third different Gustavus player to earn MIAC women's golfer of the week honors this fall.

Breanne Staples, Gustavus

Week of: 2004-10-05

Gustavus Adolphus College sophomore Breanne Staples (Windom, Minn.) tied for first place at the Saint Benedict Invitational at Greystone Golf Club. Staples shot rounds of 85 and 79 for a 164 total, winning the event on a scorecard playoff. Her final-round 79 helped the Gusties rally with a 341 team score, the lowest 18-hole team score in the event, and finish in a tie for second, only five shots back of first place.

Andrea Hanke, Saint Mary's

Week of: 2004-09-28

Saint Mary's University junior Andrea Hanke (Janesville, Wis./Craig HS) earned this week's MIAC women's golfer of the week honor after firing a school-record two-over par 74 to win individual medalist honors at the Luther (Iowa) Women's Invitational on Sept. 20. Hanke's total helped the Cardinals set an 18-hole school record of 348 as well. Hanke followed the record performance by finishing 11th at the UW-Whitewater Invitational this past weekend, shooting rounds of 83 and 82. Her scores helped SMU set a new 36-hole school record of 726.

Kelly Lewis, Carleton

Week of: 2004-09-21

Carleton College junior Kelly Lewis (Flossmoor, Ill. / Homewood-Flossmoor HS) picked up her first collegiate win, carding rounds of 80-82-162 to set a new 36-hole school record and lead the Knights to their first victory in program history at the Concordia-St. Paul Invitational at Chisago Lakes Golf Club in Lindstrom, Minn. Lewis won by nine strokes in notching her second top-five finish of the season. She currently leads the Knights with an 84.9 stroke average.

Kaley Kosak, Saint Benedict

Week of: 2004-09-14

College of Saint Benedict junior Kaley Kosak (Grand Rapids, Minn.) set new 18- and 36-hole school scoring records, firing a first-round four-over par 76 and a 153 total in finishing second at the Concordia Invitational. Her 18 hole scores of 76 and 77 are the two lowest rounds in CSB history. Her scores helped lead the Blazers to a sixth-place finish with two-day score of 673, best among MIAC schools. Kosak shot an 81 in Friday's Cobber Open, helping the Blazers set a new 18-hole team record of 328 in tying for first place and placing her seventh individually.

Alana Reetz, Gustavus

Week of: 2004-09-09

Gustavus Adolphus College junior Alana Reetz (Milaca, Minn.) fired rounds of 86 and 77 at the UW-Eau Claire Invite to finish in 4th place individually, earning MIAC women's golfer of the week honors. Her total helped the Gusties win the team event as well in one of the premier events in the upper Midwest this fall. Her final-round 77 was the only score in the 70's on day two.