

St. Thomas earns 4th consecutive title

Northfield, Minn. (10/10/04) - St. Thomas continued their dominance in women's golf this weekend at the MIAC Golf Championships at Willinger's G.C. in Northfield, Minn. The Tommies took a two-stroke lead after Saturday as they shot a 342 and followed that up by firing a 338 on Sunday to finish with 680 and win the championship by one-stroke over Gustavus.

Gustavus (345-336--681) found themselves three back of the leader St. Thomas and one back of Saint Benedict to start Sunday, but were able to fend off the Blazers to earn a second-place finish.

Saint Benedict was unable to follow up a great Saturday (344) as they shot a 355 on Sunday to earn a third-place finish. Following the Blazers were Concordia (732), Carleton and St. Olaf (738), Saint Mary's (754), Augsburg (777), and Macalester 779).

Gustavus junior Kelli Groff shot a 160 (80-80) to capture the individual championship. Saint Benedict junior Kaley Kosak was the leader in the clubhouse after Saturday as she fired a 77, but followed that up with an 88 to finish in third place with a 165. St. Thomas junior Maureen Hardwick 164 (83-81) finished second as she helped the Tommies capture the team championship.

Others in the top ten include St. Thomas senior Katie Glorvigen (166), Macalester freshman Kristen Ausan (170), St. Thomas sophomore Tricia Nelson (172), Gustavus junior Erin Schliep (174), Concordia senior Katy Stevens (174), Gustavus senior Kelsey Getz (175), Saint Benedict junior Megan Sand (175) and Saint Benedict freshman Heather Fuchs (175).
