Saint John's University won its fourth MIAC Men's Golf Championship in the last five years with a three-day total of 889 (+25) on Monday, Oct. 6. The title clinches the two-time defending national champion Johnnies' 10th consecutive trip to the NCAA Division III Championship to be held May 13-16, 2009 at the PGA Golf Club in Port St. Lucie, Fla.

Gustavus Adolphus College claimed second with a 917 (+53), followed by Augsburg College (922, +58), Bethel University (935, +71) and St. Olaf College (936, +72).

SJU's Joe Schoolmeesters claimed medalist honors for the second time in his career with three-day total of 218 (+2). Schoolmeesters led all individuals as a sophomore at the 2006 MIAC Championship. Augsburg's Tony Vanyo claimed second place with a 219 (+3) thanks to a one-under par 71 in the final round Monday. Gustavus' Ricky Copeland finished third (221, +5) for the Gusties.

The Gustavus Adolphus College women's golf team won its first-ever MIAC Golf Championship with a team score of 980 at Bunker Hills Golf Course in Coon Rapids on Monday afternoon. The Gusties held off a talented St. Thomas squad that came into this championship having won seven straight league titles. UST finished nine strokes back of the Gusties with a team score of 989.

St. Thomas junior Laura Heck (Chisholm, Minn./Hibbing) captured back-to-back individual MIAC crowns after she carded a 238, five strokes better than runner-ups Katrina Wood (Jr., Duluth, Minn./Marshall) of Carleton, Gustavus' Kimbra Kosak (Sr., Grand Rapids, Minn.), Concordia's Afton Pender (Sr., Cohasset, Minn./Grand Rapids), and Carleton's Laura Knutson (So., Edina, Minn.) who all tied for second with rounds of 243.

Carleton finished in third place (1,028), while Macalester (1,038) and the College of Saint Benedict (1,043) came in fourth and fifth place, respectively.

The Gusties became only the third team to ever win an MIAC title in the championship's 20-year history. St. Thomas and Concordia-Moorhead have each captured league titles.

The MIAC Women's Golf Championship and the automatic bid to the NCAA Championships are still up for grabs after Sunday's second round at Bunker Hills Golf Course in Coon Rapids. It appears the conference championship is a two team race between Gustavus Adolphus and St. Thomas. The Gusties lead the Tommies by six strokes going into the third and final round on Monday.

Gustavus has carded a two-day total 657, while St. Thomas, which has won the last seven conference titles, has a team total of 663. Carleton College is in third place with a 693, while Macalester College has a 696.

Individually, St. Thomas junior Laura Heck (Chrishlom, Minn./Hibbing) continues to lead the conference championships with a two-day total of 158. Carleton senior Katrina Wood (Duluth, Minn./Marshall) is tied for second place with Gustavus senior Kimbra Kosak (Grand Rapids, Minn.), both players have carded a 164 after two days.

The third and final round of the MIAC Championships get underway on Monday at 9 a.m.
