

Cara Goff, Macalester

Week of: 2004-11-10

Macalester College senior defender Cara Goff (Amherst, Mass.) scored a goal and added an assist in the championship game for MIAC Playoffs. Goff lead a solid Scot defense and shutout both opponents in the conference playoffs. Macalester travels to Grinnell on Wednesday for the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Kaia Knutson, St. Olaf

Week of: 2004-11-03

St. Olaf College junior forward Kaia Knutson (Fargo, N.D./South HS) scored the game winner against Augsburg in the mid-week match and the second goal in Saturday's match against Carleton. The two goals help the Oles into the MIAC Playoffs earning the 3rd seed, beating both the teams they were in contention with during the last week of the regular season.

Millie Suk, Augsburg

Week of: 2004-10-27

Augsburg College junior forward Millie Suk (Rochester, Minn./Mayo) scored a goal and added two assists in two key conference wins for the Auggies which kept their playoff hopes alive. Against Hamline, Suk scored the game winning goal in overtime and picked up one assist in the 2-1 victory. In the Carleton game, she assisted on the games only goal. Suk now has nine goals and six assists entering the final week of conference play.

Morgan Bain, Concordia

Week of: 2004-10-20

Concordia College sophomore forward Morgan Bain (Hugo, Minn./White Bear Lake HS) scored three goals in Concordia's two conference games and in the process broke the school record for most goals in a season. Bain now has 20 goals overall and 15 in conference games. She needs two more goals in the team's two remaining MIAC games to break the conference mark for goals and points in a single season. On Tuesday in Concordia's 3-1 win over St. Thomas, Bain scored a pair of goals. Her two goals helped the Cobbers beat the Tommies for the first time in 12 years. In Saturday's 2-1 overtime win over Augsburg she scored the first goal of the game for the Cobbers. That goal broke the school record of 19 goals in a season, which was last set in 1993. With the win, Concordia clinched a spot in the MIAC playoffs for the second consecutive season. Bain currently has 45 points (20 goals/5 assists) on the season and needs only two points to break the school record for points in a season. In conference play, she has 15 goals and three assists for 33 points.

Morgan Bain, Concordia

Week of: 2004-10-13

Concordia College sophomore forward Morgan Bain (Hugo, Minn./White Bear Lake HS) scored five goals and had one assist last week in Cobbers two victories. Against NCAA Division II MSU-Moorhead, Bain assisted on the first goal and then scored the fourth goal of the game. On Saturday, in the Cobbers' 7-0 win over St. Catherine, Bain collected four goals. It was the first four-goal game of her collegiate career. She scored the game-winning goal against the Wildcats, giving her four on the season which is tops in the MIAC. For the year, Bain now has 17 goals and five assists for 39 points. She needs only three more goals to break the school record for goals in a season. She also needs seven points to break the school record for points in a season. In conference play, she has 12 goals and three assists for 27 points. She currently leads the MIAC in points, goals and shots taken. She needs five goals in the team's next four league games to break the MIAC record for goals in a season. She also needs 10 points to break the conference mark for points in a season.

Annie Borton, Macalester

Week of: 2004-10-06

Macalester College sophomore forward Annie Borton (Berkeley, Calif.) continued her four game scoring streak with goals against Concordia and Bethel. Borton has scored in every Scot game except one. She scored the game winner against Bethel and scored a goal and added two assists against the Cobbers. Borton has 11 goals and 9 assists on the season.

Morgan Bain, Concordia

Week of: 2004-09-29

Concordia College sophomore forward Morgan Bain (Hugo, Minn./White Bear Lake HS) scored four goals and collected nine points in the Cobber two conference victories this week. Concordia is now 4-0 in the MIAC, which sets a new school record for most consecutive conference wins to start the season. In the Cobbers' 4-2 victory over St. Olaf on Tuesday, Bain was responsible for three of the team's four goals - picking up her first collegiate hat trick. Against Carleton on Saturday, Bain had a goal and an assist as Concordia beat Carleton 6-0. For the season, Bain has 11 goals and three assists for 25 points. She currently leads the MIAC in points, goals, game-winning goals and shots in conference games

Clare O'Conner, Carleton

Week of: 2004-09-22

Carleton College first-year forward Clare O'Conner (Madison Wis./Memorial HS) scored the game winning goals in the Knights two conference victories over 2003 MIAC playoff teams, St. Thomas and Saint Benedict. The upstart Knights ended Saint Benedict's 27-match unbeaten MIAC streak by downing the Blazers, 1-0

Emily Anderson, Augsburg

Week of: 2004-09-21

Augsburg College junior forward Emily Anderson (Hudson, Wis.) scored all three Augsburg goals in two conference victories during the past week. On Wednesday, Anderson scored both Auggie goals in the second half in a 2-0 win over St. Olaf, and on Saturday, she scored the lone goal of the game in the 89th minute in Augsburg's 1-0 win at Hamline. Augsburg is now 5-0-2 overall, the best unbeaten start to a season (seven games) in school history. Anderson has a team-high four goals and six assists for 14 points so far this season. She leads the MIAC in total assists, while ranking third in overall points and seventh in goals.