

Dylan Welch, Carleton

Week of: 2006-11-01

Carleton College junior midfielder Dylan Welch (San Francisco/French-American International School) scored the goal heard round the MIAC on Wednesday, as her 91st minute goal allowed Carleton to beat Macalester, 1-0, ending the Scots 43-match unbeaten streak and handed Macalester its first MIAC loss since 2003. The win clinched a first-ever MIAC playoff berth for Carleton and snapped Macalesters 33-game MIAC unbeaten streak. The Knights earned a foul just across midfield off the overtime kickoff and Sophie Wood took the restart, playing a floating ball into Macalesters penalty area, which Clare OConnor headed down to Welch, who struck a volley from eight yards out past Macalester goalkeeper Jenny Lee. The win ended Carletons 15-game losing streak to Macalester that dated back to 1990. The Knights also beat St. Olaf, 1-0, on Sunday, securing a tie for second in the MIAC regular-season standings for Carleton, which will host Macalester in the MIAC Playoff semifinals on Wednesday, Nov. 1, at 2 p.m. at Bell Field. Welch is third on the squad with three goals and nine points and the tally was her third game-winning goal of her career.

Dylan Welch, Carleton

Week of: 2006-10-31

Carleton College junior midfielder Dylan Welch (San Francisco/French-American International School) scored the goal heard 'round the MIAC on Wednesday, as her 91st minute goal allowed Carleton to beat Macalester, 1-0, ending the Scots' 43-match unbeaten streak and handed Macalester its first MIAC loss since 2003. The win clinched a first-ever MIAC playoff berth for Carleton and snapped Macalester's 33-game MIAC unbeaten streak. The Knights earned a foul just across midfield off the overtime kickoff and Sophie Wood took the restart, playing a floating ball into Macalester's penalty area, which Clare O'Connor headed down to Welch, who struck a volley from eight yards out past Macalester goalkeeper Jenny Lee. The win ended Carleton's 15-game losing streak to Macalester that dated back to 1990. The Knights also beat St. Olaf, 1-0, on Sunday, securing a tie for second in the MIAC regular-season standings for Carleton, which will host Macalester in the MIAC Playoff semifinals on Wednesday, Nov. 1, at 2 p.m. at Bell Field. Welch is third on the squad with three goals and nine points and the tally was her third game-winning goal of her career.

Jenny Lee, Macalester

Week of: 2006-10-25

Macalester College sophomore goalkeeper Jenny Lee (Circle Pines, Minn./Centennial) posted two shutouts in Macalesters two wins on the week. Lee was part of a defense that helped the Scots beat No. 6-ranked UW-Eau Claire 1-0 on Wednesday and then blanked St. Olaf 2-0 on Friday. Macalester has not allowed a goal in the past three games and has only conceded a single score in the past six games. Lee currently leads the MIAC in goals against average (0.27), save percentage (.930) and is tied for the lead in shutouts (9). Macalester currently has a 43-game unbeaten streak the second longest ever put together by a Division III team. The all-time record is 60 (all wins) posted by Ohio Wesleyan (2001-03). The Scots are now 35-0-8 since back-to-back defeats late in the 04 season to Wheaton (Ill.) and DePauw.

Charli Sorenson, Bethel

Week of: 2006-10-18

Bethel University sophomore goalkeeper Charli Sorenson (Park Ridge, Ill./Maine South) helped the Royals to two victories and a tie this past week. Sorenson tallied 33 saves over the three-game stretch. Playing through injuries the entire season, Sorenson has been the backbone of a Bethel team having one of the best seasons in program history. Sorenson is currently third in the MIAC in save percentage (.884), first in saves (145) and first in saves per game (9.67).

Tyler Kodet, Saint John's

Week of: 2006-10-18

Saint John's sophomore forward Tyler Kodet (Rochester, Minn./Lourdes) scored all three goals in last week's conference wins over Macalester (2-1) and Hamline (1-0) to move SJU into first place atop the MIAC. A first-team All-MIAC selection as a freshman last season, Kodet either leads or is tied for the team-lead in goals (4), assists (4), points (12), shots (28) and game-winning goals (2).

Amy Ravenhorst, Concordia

Week of: 2006-10-11

Concordia College senior midfielder Amy Ravenhorst (Hollandale, Minn./Albert Lea) tallied two goals and helped and shutout Bethel in their 3-0 victory. The Cobbers have not allowed a goal in conference play - a streak that spans 650 minutes. Ravenhorst has three goals and two assists on the season. Concordia is now 6-0-1 in the MIAC and 9-2-1 overall.

Christina Mills, St. Olaf

Week of: 2006-10-04

St. Olaf College first-year defender Christina Mills (White Bear Lake, Minn./St. Paul Academy) helped the Oles to a 2-0-1 record last week (2-1OT vs. Bethel, 1-1 OT at Gustavus, and 1-0 at #5 UW Eau Claire). Mills collected three assists on the week with two game winning assists (vs. Bethel in overtime, and vs. UW Eau Claire). Mills currently leads the Oles in assists with four and is tied for fifth in the MIAC.

Sarah Balgord, St. Thomas

Week of: 2006-09-27

University of St. Thomas senior forward Sarah Balgord (Madison, Wis./East) scored both Tommie goals on their weekend trip to St. Louis and reached 50 career points with 21 goals and eight assists. Balgord has scored a goal in three consecutive games and has a point in six of the eight games this season. Earlier in the week Balgord tallied one goal and helped the Tommies to a 2-0 conference victory over Bethel.

Yusi He, Carleton

Week of: 2006-09-20

Carleton College sophomore goalkeeper Yusi He (South Pasadena, Calif.) has been a key force in the Knights 2-0 MIAC start. She has recorded three shutouts in a row, playing a total of 358 minutes unscored upon. Last week she had 12 saves in three shutout wins over Saint Marys, Gustavus, and Carthage. She tallied two saves against previously unbeaten Saint Marys, three against Gustavus, and seven versus Carthage. Overall shes only allowed three goals in five games.