

2010 MIAC Baseball Awards

5/17/2010 10:06:06 AM

St. Paul, Minn. -- The Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC) announced the 2010 MIAC Baseball Awards today, May 17, 2010. Leading the 27-player All-Conference team is MIAC MVP Tyler Jones of St. Olaf and MIAC Pitcher of the Year Matt Schuld of St. Thomas.

St. Olaf College senior catcher Tyler Jones (Farmington, Minn.) was selected as the 2010 MIAC Max Molock Most Valuable Player. Jones batted .481 (37-for-77) during his 20 conference games. He tallied 22 runs, 17 RBI, six doubles, three homers, and two triples. His 37 hits and 56 total bases led MIAC hitters.

University of St. Thomas senior pitcher Matt Schuld (Plymouth, Minn./Robbinsdale Armstrong) was named the 2010 Mike Augustin Pitcher of the Year. In seven MIAC appearances, Schuld had a 5-1 record with a 2.35 ERA. He pitched 38 1/3 innings, striking out 40, while only walking 13 and allowing only 10 earned runs.

Hamline University first-year pitcher Matt Eickman (Brooklyn Park, Minn./Maranatha) was chosen as the 2010 MIAC Rookie of the Year. Eickman totaled 39 innings in MIAC play, allowing only 12 earned runs for a 2.77 ERA. He struck out 21, walked eight, and finished his first MIAC season with a 3-3 record.

Concordia College head coach Bucky Burgau received the 2010 MIAC Jim Dimick Coach of the Year award. Burgau's Cobbers finished conference play with a 14-6 record, a six game improvement in the win column from 2009. Concordia claimed the #2 seed in the MIAC Playoffs, their first playoff appearance since 2005.

For the first time, the MIAC coaches selected an All-Defensive Team. The 10-player team consists of one player at each position, a starting pitcher, and a relief pitcher. Award winners were selected for their arm strength and range as well as all defensive statistics.

As part of a conference-wide sportsmanship initiative, the MIAC announced the fourth annual All-MIAC Sportsmanship team for baseball. Members of the All-MIAC Sportsmanship team are selected by their coaches and teammates as individuals who demonstrate ideals of positive sportsmanship both on and off the field of competition.
