

Gustavus Place Two—Cob- bers Given One

By CAL LARSON

St. Paul, Nov. 20.—(P)—A backfield carrying plenty of power and speed, and a line that could be improved upon were gleaned from votes of eight coaches of the Minnesota college conference in selecting the 1935 all-conference team.

The weak spots in the line developed when the mentors insisted upon placing tackles at the guard positions; guards at the tackles, and centers at either of those two spots. They were fairly well sold on the tackles, however.

St. Thomas, undefeated but tied twice in conference play, gained four of the first team places; St. Olaf, the 1935 champions with an undefeated and untied record; St. John's and Gustavus Adolphus, also undefeated but tied, each placed two men on the team, with the other spot going to Concordia.

McGuire Is Favorite

There is little doubt but what the coaches named the right ends—McGuire of St. Thomas and Butorac of Concordia.

Lierfallom of St. Olaf, who was critically injured last year, came back to share top honors with Captain Sand on the Viking line this season and his work convinced five coaches he was first team material. Co-Captain Toman of St. John's got the nod over "Man Mountain" Gellhaye of St. Thomas.

The coaches' votes placed both the St. Thomas guards on the first team—Zucco and O'Brien. There were very few good guards in the conference and the coaches shifted Hollingsworth, first team center; Midgarden and Sand, pivot men on the Concordia and St. Olaf teams to those positions, making it extremely difficult to select the men. Joe Jenkins needed only one more first team vote to win high honors.

Hollingsworth just edged out Sand for the center place.

Scofield of St. John's was the standout choice for the quarterback. The fullback position could be handled capably by either Kirkeby of St. Olaf, first team man, or Butcher of Gustavus.

Gained Most Votes

Reinhart and Allen gained most of the votes for the halfbacks, although many coaches thought that Held of Concordia should be given first consideration over the Gustavus newcomer.

The selections:
