

Five State College Schools Place Men on Times All-Conference 11

By GEORGE BROPHY

Five schools have placed players on the Times 1947 All-State College Conference team. Topping the list is Lloyd Hollingsworth's Gustavus eleven which finished third in the race. The Gusties are represented by four players, three linemen and one back.

Other schools represented are St. Thomas (three players), Macalester (two positions), Hamline and St. John's (one player each).
