

Coaches Select Young All-Stars

Three sophomores and one freshman were placed on the first team of the 1951 MIAC all-conference team, selected for the Minneapolis Tribune by conference coaches.

This is one of the youngest teams selected for many years but it rates as one of the best. Rounding out the first eleven were a pair of juniors and five seniors.

St. John's University placed three of its linemen on the second team.

League champion Gustavus placed four of its players on the first team, while the surprising Duluth team placed three.

First team selections are ends Haldo Norman, Gustavus and Bob Murray, Duluth; tackles Sal Roberts, Gustavus and Paul Forsberg, St. Olaf; guards Lyle Hanks, Hamline and Charles Matthews, St. Thomas; center Phil Letourneau, Duluth; quarterback Tom Zwiener, Gustavus; halfbacks Don Kerlin, Concordia and Francis Bradley, Gustavus; and fullback Ken Johnson, Duluth.

Second team selection are ends Bill Christopherson, St. John's and Dick Shipe, Hamline; tackles Bill Welch, Hamline and Jim Anderson, Duluth; guards Marv Gunderson, Gustavus and Gerald Hovey, St. John's; center Don Chisholm, St. John's; quarterback Joe Magee, St. Mary's; halfbacks John Hanson, St. Olaf and Bernie Neary, Duluth; and fullback Jack Rock, Macalester.
