Champion Gustavus Adolphus did more than dominate the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic conference all-star team — the Gusties have a controlling interest.

The team was selected by the coaches in a secret, individual ballot—and six Gusties were named to the 11-man first team. No effort was made to determine offensive or defensive prowess, but to find a representative team of all-around ability.

The Gusties placed one man at each position in the line—Rollie Hanks at an end; Bill Beck at a tackle; Dick Rood at a guard, and Rod Goldberg at center.

Again, in the backfield, the Gusties' power showed through, with senior Bob Swiggum gaining the quarterback slot and sophomore Mark Skoog the fullback spot.

Rounding out the backfield are sophomore Arlo Brunberg of Concordia and junior Dick Pesonen of Minnesota Duluth at the halfbacks.

In the line, Jim Gloss of Macalester was placed at one end; Paul Casperson, Augsburg, at tackle, and Larry Boyle, Hamline's veritable one-man team, at guard.

Only one man in the line weighs less than 200 pounds, that being Hanks at 6-0 and 182 pounds. Next lightest are the two guards, Rood and Boyle, at 200 each. Casperson at 245 and Beck at 240 anchor the tackle positions.

The backfield could fall into the "pony" bracket, with Pesonen weighing 170 and Brunberg 185. Skoog, the smashing sophomore from St. Paul, gives the backfield power with his 210 pounds.

Of the 11-man starting unit, four will be back next year: juniors Pesonen and Goldberg and sophomores Skoog and Brunberg.
