

St. John's, Cobbers Lead Team

By BOB FOWLER

"To the victor goes the spoils."

That holds true this year in the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

St. John's, the 1965 football champion, and runner-up Concordia placed eight and five men, respectively, on the all-MIAC Team of the Year, selected for the Minneapolis Tribune by the league's eight coaches.

Also, St. John's coach John Gagliardi was named Coach of the Year after directing his club to a 9-0 record (7-0 in the league), the No. 1 spot in the NAIA's poll and a spot in the NAIA's playoffs Nov. 27 at Metropolitan Stadium.

St. John's had a young team and that fact was exemplified in its all-league selections. Of the eight honored players, only tackle Mike Collins and defensive end Joe Mucha will be missing in 1966. End Dave Griffen and halfback Jim Shiely made the team as sophomores while center Dennis Sharkey, tackle Fred Cremer, linebacker John Ford and defensive back Pat Whalin are juniors.

Collins, a 6-foot-2, 224-pounder, was the only unanimous pick among the 22 players chosen for the offensive and defensive teams. In fact, coaches rated him so highly, he was named on several ballots at offensive and defensive tackle.

Shiely led the league in rushing and scored four touchdowns. Griffen snagged five TD passes.

The Concordia players honored were tackle Bob Windel, halfback Gary Gilbertson, fullback Dave Heide, tackle Don Gerhardt and defensive back Paul Hoseth.

Heide led the league in scoring with 56 points on nine touchdowns and one two-point conversion. Gilbertson scored 20 points while ranking as the Cobbers' top outside threat.

Hoseth was Concordia's second-leading scorer as a quarterback, but was selected to the 22-man team for his work at safety.

Others named to the offensive team were guard Marv Stursa and quarterback John Burke of St. Thomas, guard Jerry Smith of Hamline and end Bob Wilkowski of Minnesota-Duluth.

Burke, only a junior, completed 116 of 262 pass attempts for 1,321 yards and 10 touchdowns. He was 24th among the nation's NAIA signal-callers.

Rounding out the defensive unit are end John Rudolph and linebacker Earl Gray of Gustavus, middle guard Bob Warzyniak of Augsburg, defensive back John Stusek of Macalester and safety Chuck Dorn of St. Thomas.

Tennessee Captures Berth in Bluebonnet

LEXINGTON, Ky. — (AP)—Tennessee turned two second-half pass thefts into touchdowns and turned back Kentucky 19-3 Saturday.

The victory sent the Vols into the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Bluebonnet officials invited Tennessee to play in the post-season football game at Houston, Tex., Dec. 18, and the Volunteers quickly accepted.

Sophomore quarterback Dewey Warren, making his first start, scored the go-ahead touchdowns for Tennessee. This broke a 3-3 defensive duel between the Southeastern Conference rivals.

Both scores came after interceptions of passes thrown deep in Kentucky territory by Wildcat sophomore quarterback Terry Beadles. A defensive specialist, Beadles played offense for the first time in place of passing whiz Rick Norton, out with a knee injury.
