

MIAC announces 2019-20 Men's Hockey awards

Posted: Mar 10, 2020

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. – The Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC) announced its annual men's hockey awards on Tuesday afternoon. Conference coaches selected Gustavus forward Caleb Anderson and Concordia goaltender Jacob Stephan as the Co-Players of the Year, while Saint John's head coach Doug Schueller was recognized by his peers as the MIAC Coach of the Year.

Anderson (Jr. | Sioux Falls, S.D. | Lincoln) finished his junior campaign as the MIAC's leading scorer with 14 goals and 24 points in conference play. Five of Anderson's goals came on power-plays - the third-most in the MIAC - while two of his scores were game-winners. He was also one of just two skaters to record a hat trick in league play this season. Anderson is the first Gustavus player to be named MIAC Men's Hockey Player of the Year since Ross Ring-Jarvi in 2012.

Stephan (Sr. | Eagle River, Wis. | Northland Pines) led all MIAC goaltenders in goals-against average (1.63), save percentage (.938), wins (8), and winning percentage (.773) in conference play this season. The senior started 11 league games and logged just over 661 minutes between the pipes, finishing the regular season with an 8-2-1 record. Stephan is Concordia's second MIAC Men's Hockey Player of the Year honoree in the last three seasons, joining 2018 recipient Zach Doerring.

Schueller was named MIAC Coach of the Year after leading Saint John's to its first outright regular-season conference title since 2005. The Johnnies went 9-3-4 in league play and closed out the regular season with five straight victories to lock up the program's ninth MIAC championship. Schueller was previously honored with MIAC Coach of the Year distinction in 2013 after SJU earned a share of the MIAC regular-season championship.

In addition to individual awards, MIAC coaches also voted on All-Conference and All-Rookie Teams, in addition to recognizing honorable mention selections. Saint John's seniors Brady Heppner and Andrew Lindgren joined Saint Mary's senior Kyle Meeh and St. Thomas senior Brett Gravelle as three-time All-MIAC honorees. Eight more players - Augsburg's John O'Connor, Concordia's Tyler Bossert, Aaron Herdt, and Tanner Okeson, Saint John's Jake Dittel and Kyle Wagner, and Saint Mary's Tommy Stang - received All-Conference honors for the second time in their careers.

As part of a Conference-wide sportsmanship initiative, the MIAC also announced the 14th annual All-MIAC Sportsmanship team for men's hockey. Members of the All-MIAC Sportsmanship team are selected by their coaches and teammates as individuals who demonstrate ideals of positive sportsmanship both on and off the field of competition.
