

MIAC announces 2021-22 Men's Hockey awards

Posted: Mar 08, 2022

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. – The Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC) announced its award honorees for the 2021-22 Men's Hockey season on Tuesday.

Augsburg senior forward Austin Martinsen and head coach Greg May took home top honors as the MIAC Player and Coach of the Year, respectively.

Martinsen (Sr. | Farmington, Minn.) was an offensive force throughout the season, leading all MIAC skaters with 11 goals and 23 points in conference contests as a senior. He also ranked second in the MIAC with 12 assists in addition to tallying a league-high five game-winners in MIAC play. He is now the ninth Auggie to receive MIAC Player of the Year honors in Men's Hockey and the first since goaltender Nick Schmit won the award in 2018-19.

May guided the Auggies to their eleventh regular-season MIAC title in program history in his debut season at the helm with a 14-2-0 mark in league play. May coached eight Auggies to All-Conference honors this season, with three more earning honorable mention distinction. After voting had concluded, May's team also earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament thanks to 24 regular-season wins overall - the second-most in program history. May is now the fourth different Auggie head coach to be named MIAC Coach of the Year, joining Ed Saugestad (1978), Mike Schwartz (1998), and Chris Brown (2007, 2016, 2019).

In addition to individual awards, MIAC coaches also voted on All-Conference and All-Rookie Teams. Twenty MIAC student-athletes were selected to the All-Conference Team, with an additional 16 garnering honorable mention accolades. Six first-year players received All-Rookie honors.

Concordia senior forward Tyler Bossert earned All-MIAC honors for the third time in his career, while Augsburg forward Austin Martinsen and Saint John's forward Auggie Moore became two-time All-Conference honorees. Three players - Augsburg forward Gavin Holland, Augsburg defender Patrick O'Connor, and Concordia defender Alex Stoley - earned All-Conference honors for the first time after being honorable mention previously. Holland and O'Connor were honorable mention selections in 2020, while Stoley earned the distinction in both 2019 and 2020.

As part of a Conference-wide sportsmanship initiative, the MIAC also announced the 15th-annual All-MIAC Sportsmanship team for men's hockey. Members of the All-MIAC Sportsmanship team are selected by their coaches as individuals who demonstrate ideals of positive sportsmanship both on and off the field of competition.
