

Katie Glorvigen, St. Thomas

Week of: 2003-09-30

September 30, 2003

University of St. Thomas golfer Katie Glorvigen (Junior, Grand Rapids, Minn.) was named MIAC women's golf athlete of the week after she won individual medalist honors at the 2003 MIAC Women's Golf Championships. Glorvigen carded a tournament-low four-over-par 77 on Sunday to earn medalist honors with a two-day total of 162. Glorvigen placed third at the 2002 MIAC Championships and was 33rd out of 59 at last May's NCAA Championships. The Tommies won their third consecutive MIAC women's golf title, and Glorvigen is their third MIAC meet medalist in the last five seasons.

St. Olaf College senior Naomi Schwegler, (Albany, Minn.) fired an opening-round 84 in the first round of the College City Classic hosted by St. Olaf. Schwegler went on to finish with a 175 which was good enough to tie for fourth place out of 35 golfers at Willingers Golf Course.

Naomi Schwegler, St. Olaf

Week of: 2003-09-30

September 30, 2003

University of St. Thomas golfer Katie Glorvigen (Junior, Grand Rapids, Minn.) was named MIAC women's golf athlete of the week after she won individual medalist honors at the 2003 MIAC Women's Golf Championships. Glorvigen carded a tournament-low four-over-par 77 on Sunday to earn medalist honors with a two-day total of 162. Glorvigen placed third at the 2002 MIAC Championships and was 33rd out of 59 at last May's NCAA Championships. The Tommies won their third consecutive MIAC women's golf title, and Glorvigen is their third MIAC meet medalist in the last five seasons.

St. Olaf College senior Naomi Schwegler, (Albany, Minn.) fired an opening-round 84 in the first round of the College City Classic hosted by St. Olaf. Schwegler went on to finish with a 175 which was good enough to tie for fourth place out of 35 golfers at Willingers Golf Course.

Marisa Navarro, Augsburg

Week of: 2003-09-23

Marisa Navarro (Fy./Rochester, Minn./Century) of Augsburg College tied for first place at Friday's UW-River Falls Invitational with a 13-over par 85 at the River Falls Golf Club. Navarro, the top MIAC finisher in the field, lost in a scorecard playoff for individual medalist honors.

Katie Taylor, Concordia

Week of: 2003-09-16

Concordia College senior Katie Taylor (Owatonna, Minn.) shot a final round 76 to pull away from the field and earn medalist honors at the Dragon/Bison Invitational. The tournament was contested over two days at the Rose Creek Golf Club in Fargo and at the Meadows Golf Club in Moorhead. Taylor was tied with Rock Mountain's Amber Griffith after day one of the tournament as both golfers shot an 80. Taylor was able to finally pull away on the closing holes and edged Griffith by a single stroke. As a team, Concordia showed improvement from last weekend and finished second carding identical 342 scores. The Cobbers finished five strokes ahead of MSU-Moorhead, who finished in third place. Rocky Mountain College of Montana won the team title, putting all five of their golfers in the top 15 of the tournament.

Kerry Shea, St. Thomas

Week of: 2003-09-09

St. Thomas' Kerry Shea (Soph., Owatonna, Minn.) was the top MIAC finisher (out of 35 who competed) in the 36-hole Concordia Invitational at Detroit Lakes, leading St. Thomas to second place out of 15 teams. Shea had rounds of 77-82 and tied for sixth at 159 (14 strokes better than her score in the 2002 Concordia tournament). Her 77 was four strokes lower than her previous best college tournament score. In the 2002 conference meet, Shea placed 26th of 51 golfers and was the Tommies' No. 5 player.