

Concordia Wins Sixth Straight MIAC Women's Golf Championship

Concordia College claimed its sixth consecutive MIAC Women's Golf Championship posting a 36-hole score of 325--346--671 to finish 24 shots ahead of second place St. Thomas which finished at 353-342--695. The tournament was played at Mankato Golf Club in Mankato, Minnesota. The Cobbers were led by Liz Meschke (FY, Pequot Lakes, MN) who shot 79-85--164 to claim medalist honors by one stroke over Alicia Golembeski (JR, Waconia, MN) of Gustavus who finished second at 85-80--165. Concordia placed five of its six golfers in the top ten including Meschke, Jenni Kovash who placed fourth at 80-88--168, Tanya Ulvin who placed fifth at 81-88-169, Jill Conrad who placed sixth at 85-85--170 and Maria Amlen who placed seventh at 88-88--176. Concordia has now won 10 of the 11 MIAC Women's Golf Championships since the tournament started in 1991. Second place St. Thomas placed four individuals in the top ten including Katti Severson who finished third at 86-80--166, Kris Paulson who tied for seventh at 89-87--176, Leah Wangerin who tied for seventh at 91-85--176 and Abby Owen who placed 10th at 87-90--177. The top ten finishers receive all-conference honors.