Sandra Felten, Bethel

Week of: 2008-02-11

Bethel University junior forward Sandra Felten (Cashton, Wis.) earned five points on three goals and two assists in Bethel's weekend sweep of Saint Mary's. In Friday night's game, Felten scored the first and third goals of Bethel's 3-0 shutout of the Cardinals. The following night, Felten assisted on two power-play goals and scored Bethel's first shorthanded goal of the season. The goal ultimately proved to be the game winner, bringing her season total to six game-winning goals, which leads the conference. Felten now has 15 goals overall on the season, making her the leader in both overall and conference goals scored with 12.

Alyssa Dahl, Concordia

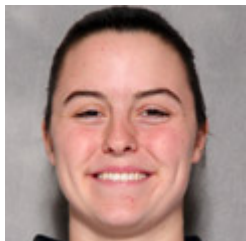

Week of: 2008-02-11

Concordia College junior forward Alyssa Dahl (Willmar, Minn.) scored a hat trick on Friday and had two assists on Saturday in the Cobbers' weekend sweep over Augsburg. All told she had a hand in five of the six Concordia goals scored in the two-game sweep. With the two wins Concordia, who was predicted to finish sixth in the MIAC Coaches' Preseason Poll, remains in sole possession of third place in the league standings. The Cobbers currently have eight wins in the MIAC which tied the most since the 2002-03 season. On Friday, Dahl scored all three goals in a 3-0 win over the Auggies. She scored the first of her three scores only five seconds apart - that is an MIAC record for fastest back-to-back goals by a single player and is believed to also be a national record. She added the third goal less than four minutes later in the third period after CC was tied 0-0 heading into the final period. Her three goals in a span of 3:56 is the fastest hat trick by a single player in school history and could be a conference record as well. On Saturday, Dahl had a pair of assists and helped CC claim a 3-2 win. All told in the two games Dahl had 14 shots.

Stefanie Ubl, Gustavus

Week of: 2008-02-04

Gustavus Adolphus College senior forward Stefanie Ubl (Blaine, Minn.) recorded five points (three goals and two assists) as the Gusties remained undefeated in MIAC play with 5-1 and 6-0 wins over Augsburg. Ubl posted a goal and two assists in Gustavus' 5-1 win on Friday night in Minneapolis. On Saturday, Ubl scored two goals including a power-play goal in a 6-0 win in St. Peter. Ubl is the team's leading scorer and the top scorer in the MIAC with 20 points (9g, 11a). The Gusties, who are currently ranked #4 in the USCHO.com poll, have won 17 straight games and are 17-1-0 overall and 12-0-0 in the MIAC.

Michaela Michaelson, St. Catherine

Week of: 2008-01-28

College of St. Catherine first-year forward Michaela Michaelson (Inver Grove Heights, Minn.) had a weekend that ranks among the top in St. Kate's history. Michaelson scored five goals in two games as the Wildcats swept Saint Mary's for the first time in history. In Friday's game, Michaelson scored three goals including the goal that proved to be the game-winner. On Saturday, Michaelson picked up right where she left off, scoring just 3:48 into the game to give the Wildcats the lead. She also scored the game-winner in this game as well on a tremendous backhand in the second period that put the Wildcats up for good. Michaelson led the Wildcats' offensive push the entire weekend and solidified herself as one of the best first-year players in the MIAC.

Brittany Lemke, Saint Mary's

Week of: 2008-01-21

Saint Mary's University first-year goaltender Brittany Lemke (St. Charles, Ill.) turned in a stellar weekend, as the Saint Mary's women's hockey team picked up three of a possible four points in their MIAC series against Hamline. The freshman goalie stopped all 26 shots she faced in earning her second collegiate shutout with a 2-0 win on Friday, then followed that up with a 30-save effort in SMU's 1-1 tie vs. the Pipers the following day. For the weekend, Lemke stopped 56 of 57 shots (.982 save percentage). On the season, Lemke has appeared in 10 of the Cardinals' 13 games, posting a 2.35 goals-against-average and a .925 save percentage.
