The MIAC Story

Founded in 1920, the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference sponsors championships in 25 sports; 13 for men and women. Conference teams are all affiliated with the NCAA Division III and the MIAC is recognized as one of the best NCAA Division III intercollegiate athletic conferences in the country. The MIAC is a conference in which the students are students first, yet still have the opportunity to reach any height to which their athletic abilities take them. As a result of competing at the NCAA Division III level, no institution in the MIAC offers any athletic scholarships.

The MIAC offers championships in the following sports each year: football (men), men's and women's soccer, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, volleyball (women), wrestling (men), men's and women's hockey, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's nordic skiing, men's and women's indoor softball (women), baseball (men), men's and women's tennis, and men's and women's outdoor track.

As members of the MIAC, all private undergraduate colleges in Minnesota, are Augsburg College, Bethel College, Concordia College, Concordia-Moorhead College, Gustavus Adolphus College, Hamline University, Macalester College, The College of Saint Benedict (women only), The College of St. Catherine (women only), Saint John's University (men only), Saint Mary's University, St. Olaf College, and the University of St. Thomas.

MIAC History

The charter members of the MIAC were initially members of the Tri-State Conference, which was made up of colleges from Minnesota and the Dakotas. In the fall of 1919, delegates from the Minnesota institutions sponsored a motion for several rule changes they felt would improve the quality of play in the Conference. The motion was struck down by the Dakota representatives. It was at this time the idea of forming a new conference was first considered. A formal meeting was held on December 22, 1919 at which a vote was taken regarding the formation of a new conference with the idea that much of the strife that had developed between Minnesota colleges could have been avoided if there had been a close organization of these colleges. On March 15, 1920, a formal Constitution was adopted and the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference was born, with Carleton College, Gustavus Adolphus College, Hamline University, Macalester College, Saint John's University, St. Olaf College and the University of St. Thomas as charter members. MIAC conference championships were first awarded in the sports of baseball, tennis and track with football and basketball the following year. Concordia-Moorhead College joined the MIAC in 1921, Augsburg College in 1924 and Saint Mary's University in 1926. Carleton dropped membership in 1925, rejoining in 1983. St. Olaf left in 1950, returning in 1975. In the interim, Minnesota-Duluth was a member from 1951 to 1975. Bethel College joined in 1977. The MIAC initiated women's competition in 1982. It was at that time that the College of Saint Benedict and the College of St. Catherine joined the league.

2002-03 MIAC Men's Hockey Preview

Season Preview

Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference begins the 2002-2003 hockey season with conference games starting Friday, November 1. The perennial powers of the league remain strong and promise to continue the tradition of outstanding hockey in the MIAC. With last season's standings being so tight with the top five teams, it will only help in creating an exciting atmosphere during conference games.

St. Thomas looks to remain at the top of the MIAC, but if the team is able to succeed they will need to replace the top scoring line of Lawrence, Eric Wenkus, and Jake Searles. The trio combined for 49 goals and 73 assists last season, but all graduated. The Tommies have shared 12 of the past 14 MIAC Championships.

Gustavus, last year's MIAC runner-up, returns 19 letterwinners and six starters, including MIAC Co-MVP goaltender Dan Melde and conference forwards Jerod Klava and Joe Ulwelling. With the addition of their squad returning for the 2002-03 campaign, the Gusties are a preseason MIAC favorite.

Concordia, the third-place team last season, will have a wealth of 41 players to put on the ice, with a preseason roster that lists 49 players. Among the top returners for the Auggies is three-time All-MIAC defenseman Jaro Cesky, who will serve as a team captain for his senior senior. St. John's finished fourth in conference play a year ago, but lost two top scorers to graduation. Coming back for the Johnnies is All-conference defenseman Chad Schmidt, who anchored a defense that only allowed 2.5 goals per game last season, the third-lowest in the league. Concordia, the fifth-place team in 2001-02, returns its top two including all-conference honoree Aaron Marsh. The Cobblers are a seasoned team, boasting 19 players with collegiate playing experience. Concordia has appeared in the MIAC Playoff in each of the last three seasons, and is a favorite to return to postseason play.

St. Mary's returns a core group of experienced players, with eight of its top eight scorers and four of its top six defenders back for the 2003 campaign. The Cardinals look to improve on their sixth-place finish last season and earn a trip to postseason play. The Hamline Pipers look to take a leap in the conference standings after finishing seventh a year ago. The squad is steadily improving, and returns its top scorer, Troy Kleven, as well as two other players for the upcoming season.

Olaf will count on youth to carry the team this season, with a roster loaded with first-year players and sophomores. The Oles will look for leadership from returning forwards Nick Hanson who earned All-conference honors last season, and Keith Townsend who ranked among the top in the MIAC in points and assists last year. St. Olaf finished a disappointing ninth in 2002, but will look to its top players to make a big impact this season and carry the team to an end conference finish this winter.

C Playoffs

St. Thomas will receive an automatic bid from the MIAC to the 2003 NCAA Championship. The bid will be determined at the MIAC Men's Hockey Playoff. The top five teams in the conference standings at the end of the regular season will compete in the league's playoff series, with regular-season finish determining each team's seed in the playoff. This year's playoff, a single-elimination tournament, will take place in Bloomington, Minn., at the Bloomington Ice Garden. A play-in game, will be contested between the fourth and fifth seeds. The winner of the play-in game will then face the third seed in the first semifinal match-up. The second and third-seeded teams will play each other in the other semifinal game. The semifinal winners will then play for the playoff championship on Saturday, March 1.

Statistics - MIAC and National

The MIAC will again have conference and overall statistics compiled on the www.collegehockeystats.com website. This will be the second season the MIAC has been with collegehockeystats.com, which host all team and individual statistics and now includes career stats. Beginning this season, the collegiate hockey statistics site hosts every hockey conference in the nation. The site features more expanded coverage than the previous MIAC hockey statistics site.

2001-02 Season Review

St. Thomas dominated the 2001-02 men's hockey season, winning the regular season conference title and the league playoff. The Tommies went 13-3 in conference action and 22-6 overall. Gustavus accomplished the most stunning turnaround, moving up to second place in the final MIAC standings in 2001-02 after finishing in a tie for last in the conference the year before. The MIAC Playoffs had a new look as the top five teams advanced to a single elimination playoff. The competition to earn those top five spots was fierce as the second through fifth place teams in the conference were separated by one point apiece. Conference champion St. Thomas beat Gustavus by a score of 3-2 in the MIAC Playoff Championship game and received the MIAC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. St. Thomas faced UW-Superior in the NCAA Tournament play-in game and lost to the eventual national champions 2-1 in the single elimination game.

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

On paper, prospects look good for the Augsburg College men's team in 2002-03.

Ten of the top 15 scorers return as part of an experienced corps returning letterwinners. One of the top goalies in the conference is le forward lines show tremendous promise, and the defense is solid le. The Auggies have one of their deepest and largest rosters in memory, with 49 players starting the season, including 22 newcomers.

And Augsburg has been among the most consistent teams in the recent years, with five straight finishes of fourth place or better in AC standings, including last year's third-place league finish of 14-9-3 12-5-1 in the MIAC.

"On paper, we look good, but proving it is a whole other thing the league is so darn good," said Augsburg head coach Mike z, entering his seventh season on the Auggie bench. "It's so in this league, because every team is a quality team. This league get near the recognition it should for how competitive it is from bottom."

Schwartz has also retained the nucleus of a solid coaching staff ed former Auggie great Martin Hlinka as an assistant coach. Hlinka ie last three seasons in the Washington Capitals organization, ig to the top minor league level for two years and spending some a practice-squad player with the Capitals. He is spending this season ating himself from injuries that hampered his progress last year.

The Auggies have probably one of the deepest lineups in z's tenure, a group of few stars but many solid team players who e inspiration to come together for overall improvement.

"This is, by far, the deepest roster we've had here. I look at this ad we have to deep into the lineup before we drop off talent-wise," z said. "In the past, we've averaged usually 33 different guys who ayed some varsity time in a season, out of the 40-plus total guys in gram. That's a pretty good average. The guys who are playing the get the playing time. We've got great depth."

situation is solid - It all starts in the nets, and Augsburg's ping situation is very solid. Pete Samargia (Sr., Gilbert, Minn./-Gilbert HS) shined in his first season as an Auggie last year, after spending his first two seasons at the Division I University of Minnesota.

Samargia had a .902 save percentage and 2.98 goals-against-average last season — better statistics for a single season than any individual year for the player considered the best goalie ever to wear an Auggie uniform, four-time All-MIAC selection Ryan McIntosh (1997-2001).

Cesky leads Auggie forwards - A talented Auggie forward group is paced by Jaro Cesky (Sr., Prague, Czech Republic), a three-time All-MIAC first-team selection who has led the Auggies in scoring throughout his career. A talented playmaker, Cesky has garnered 30 or more points each year of his career, and he will again center Augsburg's top line. "Jaro is one of the top players in the league," Schwartz said.

Forward Brad Schwartzbauer (Sr., White Bear Lake, Minn.) returned to the team in good health after injury problems sidelined him for much of the 2000-01 season. He ended up with 12 goals and 25 points in 2001-02, including a team-high six power-play goals. Fellow senior captain Brad Keogh (Sr., Lake Shore, Minn./Mankato West HS) has also been a steady forward presence in the lineup.

Defense is experienced, steady - Augsburg has a solid group of defensemen, with six varsity regulars returning. Brad Holzinger (Sr., North Oaks, Minn./Hill-Murray HS) earned All-MIAC first-team honors last season with a 20-point (four goals, 16 assists) performance. He has led Auggie defenders in scoring each of his three years in the program, and should contend for the same role this year.

Chad Moore (Sr., Lakeville, Minn.) also shined on defense last year, with 11 points (two goals, nine assists), a plus-13 plus-minus rating (tops among defenders), and an all-conference honorable-mention selection. Shawn Smith (Sr., Temagami, Ontario/E.C. Drury HS) and Josh Liesmaki (So., Taconite, Minn./Greenway-Coleraine HS) also performed well in their first years as varsity regulars.

Steve Belde (So., Lake Elmo, Minn./Hill-Murray HS) and Sean Donnelly (Sr., Calgary, Alberta/St. Mary's HS) made moves into the varsity lineup and should be regulars there this season. Donnelly has shown tremendous resolve in recovering from a nearly career-ending neck injury last year.

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

After a disappointing finish last season, the Royals have undergone a significant change in personnel and personality in 2003.

The team lost many of its starters with the departures of Matt Anderson, Corey McKinnon, Bryan Peltier, Brenton Harkin, David Vidmar, Brian Cashman and starting goalie Jeff Hall. The Royals of this season are a collectively younger squad than the one that took the ice in 2002. Co-captain Chris Myrold (Crookston, Minn.) remains the only senior in the lineup, with co-captain Chris Carroll (review, Minn.) joining him to add veteran leadership to the group. The two have been through the ups and downs together over the Royals' past two seasons-from losing the M.C. Championship to St. John's in 2001 to only winning 3 games last year.

The older guys have really made an effort to take the less experienced players underneath their wings," Head Coach Peter Aus said about his veterans. "We plan to play hard, work hard and stress a strong team defense throughout the season."

Leading the defensive attack for the Royals will be junior defensemen Rickey Saintey (Rosemount, Minn.) and Sean Molin (Maplewood, Minn.). Sophomore Matt Millar and freshmen Andrew Leone and Tony Ciro will share net time for the Royals in goal.

With a team full of youth and energy, the Royals are hopeful for a strong finish in the conference in 2003.

"We're optimistic about this season," said Aus. "As a team, we're young-very young. But this team is closer than any team we've had since I've been at Bethel."

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

experience equates to success in college hockey, then the 2002-03 Concordia-Moorhead men's hockey team should be very successful. Steve Baumgartner enters his 17th season at the helm of the team with four returning starters from a year ago. Of the 26 players rostered, 19 have playing experience at the college level. The team will have six seniors on the squad, and all will play important roles in Concordia's quest for a fifth straight berth in the MIAC playoffs. At the end of last season, Concordia rattled off four straight "must-win" games to earn a spot in the MIAC playoffs. They then proceeded to oust the defending champion St. Thomas in the semifinals. Having won five of their games, the Cobbers hope to bring momentum and experience into the 2002-03 campaign.

One of the key ingredients to the team's success will be to find a starting goaltender. After going through four spectacular years of part-time All-American Bryan Howard from 1997-2001, Concordia is expected to enter their second consecutive year without an experienced goaltender. Last year, after Howard's departure, junior transfer Jason Baumgartner assumed the duties between the pipes and started every MIAC game. He decided not to return to Concordia for his senior year, leaving a "black hole" in the back of the Cobbers defense. The returning goalie, that was with the team last year, is Dave Gess (So., Moorhead, Minn./Moorhead HS). Gess didn't see any game action in 2001-02 and will have to shake off the lack of game experience before getting into the goal. Two first-year goalies will push Gess for the position and, hopefully, give Concordia a trio of capable goaltenders. Tom Aulik (Elk River, Minn./Thief River Falls HS) has the experience of the two, having played for the Minnesota Ice Hawks in the Minnesota Junior Hockey League. The other newcomer is Luke Garafola (St. Paul, Minn./St. Paul Central HS) whose 6' 4" frame poses a challenge to opposing players.

Defensively, the Cobbers should be deeper and more consistent than in 2001-02. Last season the Cobbers were held to less than three goals in 17 different games - and were shutout twice during the year. Concordia was a 1-7 in those eight games, most of which were against the top teams in the MIAC and NCHA. In order to finish in the top half of the conference, Concordia will have to generate scoring from all lines and do so at a consistent pace. Leading the way for the Cobber offensive attack will be Aaron Marsh (Sr., Summerland B.C./Summerland HS) who was named to the MIAC all-conference team last year. Marsh led Concordia in scoring in 2001-02 and was ninth in the MIAC in that category. Junior center Andy Vix (Rochester, Minn./Rochester John Marshall) will be a key player in the Cobber offensive scheme. Despite his small stature, Vix was fourth on the team in scoring last season and led the MIAC in shorthanded goals. He will center the first line and will need to set up Marsh and fellow linemate Jeff Styba (Sr., Shoreview, Minn./Mounds View HS) for the Cobbers to have an explosive top-scoring unit. The other returning all-MIAC offensive player is senior Antonio Castaneda (Moorhead, Minn./Moorhead HS). Castaneda will likely center the second line in order to give that unit experience and a hard-nosed presence in the attacking offensive zone. Castaneda led Concordia in assists in 2001-02 and was tied for 14th in the MIAC in overall points.

Defensively, Concordia will have a more experienced corps of players. Of the top four defensemen, two are seniors and a third is a junior. Treavor Peterson (Sr., Thief River Falls, Minn./Lincoln HS) has proven to be a solid attacking defenseman, having finished third in the MIAC last season in points by a defenseman. His ability to lead an attack and be solid in stopping the opposing team earned him all-conference honors last season, and will help solidify the blueline for Concordia in 2002-03. Shawn Rehm (Sr., Park Rapids, Minn./Detroit Lakes, Minn.) and Jeremy Law (Jr., Penticton B.C./Penticton HS) will give the Cobbers three experienced, MIAC tested defensemen. Baumgartner has high hopes for the fourth member of the defensive unit. First-year player Brett Johnson (Thief River Falls, Minn./Lincoln HS) brings an imposing presence to the defense. His ability to clear the front of the net will help keep the pressure off of the Concordia goalies and help keep the opposing team from scoring easy, rebound goals.

Another key aspect of Concordia's 2002-03 season will be the early season schedule. The Cobbers have to play their first six MIAC games on the road. Conversely, the team will finish the season by hosting four of their final five MIAC series at the Moorhead Sports Center. If they can survive the opening stretch of games, and position themselves in the thick of the MIAC race at Christmas time, then they should have an opportunity to earn a MIAC playoff spot for the fifth consecutive season.

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

Fourth-year head coach Brett Petersen saw his team take a giant step up into the upper echelon of the MIAC last year as they finished second in the regular season and then the MIAC Playoff Championship to St. Thomas 3-2. With the only ever player returning and a strong recruiting class in the fall, Petersen has high hopes for the Gusties, however he has added to his squad the importance of not getting complacent. Petersen stated, "We want to concentrate on continuing the success we experienced last year. Our players made tremendous gains in the weight room in the off-season and this tells me that they are serious about getting better. As long as we don't lose focus we will be in good shape."

The Gusties return 19 letterwinners from a squad that posted a record mark of 9-3-4 last year. Add to that core group seven freshmen and you can start to see why Coach Petersen is excited about the development of his hockey program. Petersen has the strengths of this year's squad lie in quality scoring and excellent depth up front and on the blueline. In fact, the Gusties will rely on last year's Co-Player of the Year MIAC Dan Melde. A junior, Melde was a difference maker for the Gusties as he posted a league mark of 6-2-4 with a 1.70 goals against average. Petersen feels that Melde has handled the position he received last season well and has looked very good in preseason workouts. Up front, the Gusties return all-star forwards Jerod Klava (junior) and Joe Ulwelling (sophomore). Klava turned in the finest year of his career last year with 17 goals and 15 assists for 32 points, while Ulwelling came into the scene and tallied 11 goals and 21 assists for 32 points in his freshman season. That duo will lead a strong group of scoring forwards that includes senior Aaron Allar (9g, 6a), and juniors Sam Johnson (8g, 13a) and Justin Davis (12g, 6a). Newcomers Justin Nikle, who played for Des Moines in the USHL last season and Loren Havemeier, who played for Tri-City in the USHL last season are expected to contribute significantly as well. On defense, Seniors Adam Moseley and Matt Logan will give the team a real veteran presence. Both also tallied quite a few points last season as Logan contributed two goals and 16 assists, while Moseley recorded two goals and 13 assists. Other key returners on the blue line include juniors Luke Ahlberg and Brian Merchant and sophomore Nick Droogsma. Newcomers expected to contribute include freshmen Zac Headrick, who played at Waterloo in the USHL last year and Keith Detlefsen, who played for Rochester in the USHL last season. Coach Petersen has been pleased with how the returning players and newcomers have come together during the pre-season. He feels like the veterans have established a consistent work ethic in practice and this work ethic will be the foundation of the Gustavus men's hockey program for year's to come.

The team will be tested significantly early in the season as they face perennial MIAC power St. Thomas in the opening MIAC series on November 1-2, followed by Augsburg and St. John's. In between, just for good measure, the Gusties will face NCHA foes Lake Forest and St. Norbert. Petersen commented, "We will be able to decide if we are contenders or pretenders by Thanksgiving. That is more pressure than we have put on ourselves in the past, but I think we are ready to take that step."

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

Hamline men's hockey program has taken a step forward every year each Pat Cullen has been at the helm. In his fourth season, Cullen hopes the Pipers next step will be into the MIAC playoffs.

"Expectation is to compete for a playoff spot," Cullen said. "I think good enough to make the playoffs, but we have to take that next step." Finishing seventh in the conference (4-11-1 in the MIAC, 7-17-1 overall) in the 2001-2002 campaign, the team returns five of their top six scorers.

By the way are senior forward Troy Kleven and sophomore forward Jaragel. Together with the departed B.J. Anderson, the trio formed the highest scoring lines in the conference, combining for forty-six and forty-eight assists.

He led the Pipers with eighteen goals, including thirteen tallies during conference play. He also added 14 assists. The Crookston, Minnesota was also named to the 2001-2002 MIAC All-Conference team.

"He is the type of player that makes everyone around him better," Cullen said of his team captain.

Anders, from Bratislava, Slovakia, was third on the team in scoring with 12 goals as well as twelve helpers despite missing the final four games of the season.

The team will look to junior Brice Parks (five goals, seven assists, 12 assists) and sophomores Ryan Manke (6-5-11) and Steve Malke (1-13-13) to take the depth on the offensive front.

Ultimately, the team must be more consistent for a playoff berth to be legitimate. The Pipers gave up 33.2 shots on goal and 4.74 goals per contest last season.

The Pipers will look to junior defenseman Kris Cabak (0-8-8) and converted senior defenseman Ethan Allen (0-3-3) to head a very young defensive corps.

Newcomers Eric Weum (Osseo, Minn.), Jake Lemke (Ham Lake, Minn.), Ben Gustafson (Elk River, Minn), and Adam Bressler (Eagan, Minn.) will have to come of age quickly to protect the Piper goaltenders.

The Piper netminders will also have to be more consistent than a year ago. Hamline goes into the year with two experienced goaltenders.

Last season, as a first-year, John Harstad started eleven games, stopping 366 shots on 424 attempts for a .863 save percentage. The 5-11, 170-pounder from Alexandria, Minn. went 6-8 on the season with a 4.50 goals against average.

Senior Robert Fuchs (Richmond, British Columbia) also started eleven games, compiling a 0-7-1 mark with a .852 save percentage and 5.00 goals against average.

To make the playoffs, the Pipers will have to finish fifth or better in the MIAC, a feat that has gotten tougher as parity has increased.

"Every year since I've been here, this conference gets closer one through nine," Cullen said. "I think this year it will be as close as it's ever been."

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

The hockey team enters the 2002-03 season after last season's record of 14-10-2 and 9-5-2 in the MIAC. SJU finished fourth in the final MIAC regular season standings and lost to Bemidjia-Moorhead in the first round of the MIAC playoffs.

The team's success will be dependent on a mix of returning and new players.

SJU expects to welcome back 18 players from last year's team, including ten forwards, five defensemen and all three goalies.

The Johnnies have 11 new varsity players on this year's squad.

The team needs to find a replacement for All-American forward Mike Possin, who graduated, finished the season tied for the MIAC lead in scoring with 15 points, 15th nationally with 43 total points (15 G, 28 A), and the MIAC with 18 assists.

The Johnnies also need to replace another graduate from last season, Rick Talbot, a 2002 All-MIAC selection. Rick Talbot tied for ninth in scoring in the MIAC, had 30 points overall (16 G, 14 A) to finish second on the team with 10 points and netted a team-high six power play goals.

Among the SJU returning forwards will be senior Bryan Talbot, who had 13 points (13 G, 10 A); sophomore Brady Lundblad, who tallied 18 points (8 G, 10 A) and senior Shane Taylor, who had seven points (3 G, 4 A). Talbot and Lundblad were the third and fourth leading scorers, respectively, on last year's squad. Taylor and junior Kevin Willey are assistant captains this season, as Willey had five goals and 11 assists for 16 points last season. Senior Jeff Smoleroﬀ also returns after having five goals and seven assists for 12 points in 2001-02.

On the defensive side, SJU welcomes back junior All-MIAC selection Chad Schmidt, who was second in scoring among defensemen in the MIAC and overall had 18 points (6 G, 12 A). Other top returning defenseman will be senior Corey Huck and sophomore Adam Holmgren. Huck, this year's team captain, collected 11 points (4 G, 7 A) last season, while Holmgren had two goals and three assists for five points in 10 games played.

Senior Rick Gregory saw most of the action in net last season and had a 3.31 goals against average with a 10-9-1 overall record. Gregory was third in the MIAC in conference goals against average at 2.72. Sophomore Aaron Bulman participated in seven games, with six starts and had a 1.83 goals against average.

As a team in 2001-02, the Johnnies had the best scoring offense in the MIAC with 65 goals in 16 MIAC games, for an average of 4.06 goals/game.

Head coach John Harrington will be behind the bench for the 10th consecutive season, which is the longest tenure of any hockey coach in SJU history. The all-time winningest hockey coach in school history, Harrington will look to build on his career record of 138-95-20 overall and 91-37-16 in the MIAC. Harrington has led the Johnnies to the MIAC playoffs eight times and NCAA tournament three times during his tenure in Collegeville. The Johnnies have gone seven consecutive seasons (1996-02) without having an overall losing record, which is the longest streak in school history.

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

per, the Saint Mary's University men's hockey team closed 2001-2002 season with a 4-3 overtime loss at Concordia. st below the surface, however, and you'll discover that was much more to that season-ending game in Moorhead, , than the final score indicates.

the final score doesn't tell you is that Concordia scored that winning goal midway through the overtime period — into erty net.

3. SMU entered the final weekend of the season needing one their two-game series against Concordia to reach the MIAC eason tournament for the first time since the 1996-97

fter a 5-3 loss in the first of the two games, the Cardinals one-game, winner-take-all showdown with the Cobbers. 50 minutes, the two teams were deadlocked at 3-3, and while rdia would be more than happy with a tie, the Cardinals d a win — so they pulled their goalie for an extra offensive er early in the extra period.

tunately, the plan backfired, as Andy Crook picked up a uck and scored on the open net, giving Concordia the win l dashing SMU's hopes of a return to the post-season.

ously, we were disappointed with the way the season ended ting that close to reaching the playoffs," admitted SMU Don Olson. "But when you look back, it also showed just rong are conference has become.

to bottom, every weekend is a battle."

iat's certainly not going to change this season.

now that the conference is constantly improving — every ust keeps getting better and better year-in and year-out," said. "Our job is to keep improving with them."

om what Olson has seen so far, the Cardinals have done just that.

"Last year, we had great team chemistry — and after Christmas we seemed to find that inner drive and really started to put it all together," said Olson, whose team finished 12-10-3 a year ago. "And I think we have the potential to be even better than we were a year ago.

"We return a lot of experience at every position, which is a nice luxury to have," said Olson. "But we can't be satisfied with just the fact that we return so many players — we have to build on that."

With seven of their top eight scorers, four of their top six defensemen and a pair of goaltenders back, Olson has plenty of tools to build with.

Led by Jason Fillip (Fox River Grove, Ill. / 11 goals, 13 assists, 24 points) and Lenny Hofmann (Sartell, Minn. / 4 goals, 18 assists, 22 points), the Cardinals' offense returns 76 of the 88 goals they scored last year. Defensively, All-MIAC selection Sam Phillips (Red Wing, Minn. / 6 assists, 6 points) leads a veteran corps that helped the Cardinals boast a 2.87 goals-against-average. Dave Rogalski (St. Louis Park, Minn.) was another big reason for SMU's impressive GAA, as the sophomore netminder stopped 224 of the 251 shots he faced, posting a 3.09 GAA and an .892 save percentage.

"Last year was a good learning experience for the players," said Olson, whose team opens its season at home, playing host to Finlandia for a two-game, nonconference series beginning Nov. 1. "They learned the commitment it takes to be competitive in this league. There was a lot of disappointment in the way the season ended last year, and with so many players returning, I think that is a motivating factor. "We're headed in the right direction."

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

The 2002-2003 Mens Hockey team will be looking to rebound from a disappointing 2001-2002 season that saw them finish eighth in the conference with a 2-11-3 record. The Oles have a strong returning upperclassmen, including All-MIAC forward Nick Hanson (Senior, Eden Prairie, Minn.) plus have added several skilled players to this years line-up.

Returning Oles include Hanson's line mate for the past two years, Dan Norsten (Junior, Eagan, Minn). Last season, Hanson and Norsten combined forces for 21 goals and 55 points. Also on the Oles on offense will be Jordan Bronce (Senior, Eden Prairie, Minn.) who stepped forward last year as a junior and notched 19 goals while filling in a much needed offensive position.

The team will look to Keith Townsend (Sophomore, Sterling Heights, Mich.) and Dana Quinn (Sophomore, Madison, Wis.) to be scoring goals. Last season, Townsend scored seven goals with 18 assists, and Quinn tallied 11 goals and nine assists. Both players have the ability to be all-conference players and are looking to achieve that elusive title this season.

Along on the blue line this year, will be several important returning players. Michael Jewison (Junior, St. Paul, Minn- Holy Angels HS) is expected to lead a core of defenders who gained experience last year and needed a lot of playing time. Coach Goldsworthy will look to Hapka (Sophomore, Mukwanago, Wis), Dave Short (Sophomore, Anchorage, Alaska) and Andy Heyne (Sophomore, Orono, Minn.) to provide a strong backbone for the Oles defensive game.

In net this year will be returning goal tender Garret Hasti (Junior, St. Louis Park, Minn.) Last season Hasti posted a .915 save percentage and a record of 4-5-2 in the MIAC. Also competing for playing time in net will be Mark Skeba (Sophomore, Wheaton, Ill. – Columbus, CSHL) and Dan Kehler (First Year, Woodbury, Minn. – Great Falls, AWHL).

Coach Goldsworthy is excited to bring several new faces to the bench for the Oles this year. One newcomer includes assistant coach Scott Macho. Macho brings great experience to the coaching ranks as he graduated from St. Olaf in 1999, where he was an all-conference defenseman his junior and senior year.

At forward Ron Guild (First Year, Kent, Wash. – Billings, AWHL), Josh Biser (First Year, Madison, WI – Iron Range, MJHL), and Joel Ihrie (First Year, Woodinville, Wash. – Springfield, NAHL) will provide immediate impact. All three forwards will contribute well to the Oles offensive attack. Defenseman Will Wetterlin (First Year, Edina, Minn.), and Nathan Espiritu (First Year, Yorkton, SJHL) will be important additions to the blue line, to add depth and scoring.

The Oles home opener is against Hamline on Nov. 1, 2002 at 7:00 p.m. at the Northfield Ice Arena. Get ready for another year of exciting Oles hockey!

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

ce, Wenkus & Searles. The names command respect, like a ent T win Cities law firm. Tony Lawrence, Eric Wenkus and Jake actually were partners in another mission. Nos. 7, 14 and 27 sed the first scoring line for the 2001-02 St. Thomas men's team. That trio was as dangerous as any line in Division III last combining for 49 goals and 73 assists in the Tommies' 22-6 unately for Tommie fans, two-time All-American Lawrence (163 oints), Wenkus (123 career points) and Searles (63 career points) ed last May.

feel too sorry for St. Thomas coach Terry Skrypek, who needs 13 reach 300 on his career. Skrypek (287-126-26 in 15 seasons) has nt goalie depth, three proven defensemen, and has four scoring offense he thinks can carry on the Tommie tradition. An excellent ng class promises immediate dividends and improved depth.

g Tony, Eric and Wenkus is tough, but I'm excited about our ve balance," Skrypek said. "Teams won't be able to gang up on us y did last year. Whenever our first scoring line came out on the other teams put a checking line out there and put all their on on them. This year we have four scoring lines that are all pretty nd we have a fifth line that's no slouch and could play for a lot of n our conference."

omas has won or shared 12 of the last 14 MIAC championships.
01-02 Tommies won both the conference regular-season and championship, and lost 2-1 on the road in the NCAA playoffs to

mes into this season ranked seventh in the Div. III preseason poll College Hockey Online. But another tough schedule awaits. In the lf of the season, St. Thomas plays two games vs. No. 2 Superior; nes vs. No. 15 Gustavus; single games vs. No. 10 UW-River Falls
. 11 UW-Stevens Point; a Jan. 3 game vs. No. 14 Trinity and has a al Jan. 4 tournament matchup vs. No. 1 Norwich.

Skrypek returns his top three defenders in seniors Brad Davis (12 career points), captain Dan Starkey (25 career points) and his son Bryan Skrypek (6g-13a in 2001-02). The coach said the 6-1, 210-pound Davis, who returned for a fifth season of school, has the size and strength to play professionally. He also likes the leadership and consistency of Starkey and Skrypek. The latter has played in all 88 games on his career.

Back in goal is senior Bob Tallarico (19-5-0, .908 save%, 2.61 GAA).
He'll be joined by Air Force transfer Zach Sikick, a 6-2, 200-pound sophomore from Eveleth, and soph returner Kevin Hennessey. The goalie depth is so good that Brad Moore, who started on the Tommies' 1999-2000 national runnerup team but lost the starting job last season, is passing up his senior season. Two freshmen who played well in last year's Minnesota state tournament will wait their chances — Jeremy Earl of Bloomington Jefferson and Kevin Pyper of Totino-Grace.

Skrypek is moving 2001-02 All-American defenseman Drew Palmgren (career 22g-32a) back to offense. "We know Drew can score goals," Skrypek said. "He was an all-conf. forward two years ago and an All-American defenseman last year. I think he has the ability to become the first UST player to make All-American on both offense and defense."

Skrypek said he expects another wide-open conference race, with the Tommies among at least six teams capable of winning the championship.

"Gustavus returns everyone on its roster and has to be the favorite," Skrypek said. "St. Mary's has just about everyone back, Augsburg returns a lot and had a good recruiting class, and St. John's and Concordia are always a factor in the title race. You also can't take Bethel, St. Olaf and Hamline for granted. I think you're going to see a lot of one-goal games and even ties this season. The team that can win the close games will win the championship."

The Tommies open their season at home Nov. 1 vs. No. 15-ranked Gustavus, then play the Gusties Nov. 2 in St. Peter. Last season, UST went 3-0 vs. the Gusties — claiming 1-0 and 2-1 wins in the regular season and a 3-2 victory in the playoff finals.

2002-03 MI AC Women's Hockey Preview

Women's Hockey Season Preview

The Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference begins the 2002-03 women's hockey season with non-conference games starting the third of November 1. Conference games begin the week of November 18 and year promises to be another outstanding season as the perennial remain strong and several others have built their programs up in the past few years and look to challenge for the top spots in the Gustavus finished at the top of the MIAC standings in 2002, and is expected to replace AHCA and MIAC Player of the Year Sarah Moe. Gustavus graduated. The Gusties return All-American Ellen Doyle and All-American forward Bobee Jo Lang on the blue line, as well as All-MIAC defenseman Katie Deschneau.

Saint Mary's, the MIAC runner-up a year ago, will be strong in this season with returning All-American and three-time all-conference goalie Missie Meemken. For offensive power, the Cardinals look to 2001 MIAC Co-Player of the Year and All-American Tinnie Borge and fellow forwards Emily Kearns and Christy Hicks. Five of six scorers from last season will return for Saint Mary's.

Thomas finished third last season, and returns an experienced defenseman with a lot of depth. Two-time All-MIAC honoree Tomery Stolz leads the offense after becoming the school's top career scorer last season. Danielle Mikolai returns in goal for the Tommies after ranking in the top three in several conference goaltending statistics categories last

St. Benedict was fourth in the final MIAC standings in 2002, and is making its first-ever appearance in the MIAC Playoffs. The Cobbers are expected to have leadership this season, with Kerry Norman at the helm this season. Two-time All-MIAC goalie Shyla Wilson returns to the defense to lead the lineup for the upcoming season.

Saint Benedict will call the Municipal Athletic Complex home this season and will look to make a repeat trip to the MIAC Playoff after missing its fifth year ago.

Augsburg narrowly missed earning a berth in the conference playoff last season with a sixth-place finish, but could be the surprise team this season. Forward Lauren Chezick, and All-MIAC performer in 2002, is expected to be a runner for the Auggies. Augsburg will look to two junior transfers from the 2002 national runner up, Manhattanville, for additional help in the upcoming season.

Saint Catherine finished seventh in 2002, and will lean on youth to lead the team in 2002-03. The Wildcats list 11 first-year players on the roster. Mary Brown is in her first season as the head of the women's hockey program at St. Catherine.

St. Olaf, St. Olaf and Hamline have recruited hard in the off season, and look to improve on their conference finishes from last season.

MIAC Playoffs

The automatic bid from the MIAC to the 2003 NCAA Championship will be determined at the MIAC Women's Hockey Playoff. The top three teams in the conference standings at the end of the regular season will compete in the league's playoff series, with regular-season finish determining each team's seed in the playoff. This year's playoff, a single-elimination tournament, will take place in Woodbury, Minn., at the Bielenberg Sports Center. A play-in game, will be contested between the fourth and fifth seeds. The winner of the play-in game will then face the third seed in the first semifinal match-up. The second and third-seeded teams will play each other in the other semifinal game. The semifinal winners will then play for the playoff championship on Saturday, March 1.

Statistics - MIAC and National

The MIAC will again have conference and overall statistics compiled on the www.collegehockeystats.com website. This will be the second season the MIAC has been with collegehockeystats.com, which hosts all team and individual statistics and now includes career stats. Beginning this season, the collegiate hockey statistics site hosts every hockey conference in the nation. The site features more expanded coverage than the previous MIAC hockey statistics site.

2001-02 Season in Review

Gustavus won the MIAC regular-season title convincingly in 2001-02, going undefeated in conference action to win the MIAC crown for the second consecutive season. In the MIAC Playoff, Saint Mary's upset the Gusties to win the playoff and earn the automatic bid to the first-ever NCAA Div. III Championship. Gustavus was invited to the NCAA Tournament with an at-large bid, and played host to Saint Mary's in the first round. Gustavus won the game 2-0 to advance to the semifinals, where they were defeated 8-5 by Elmira. The Gusties defeated Bowdoin 2-1 in the consolation game to place third nationally.

Gustavus forward Sarah Moe named Women's Ice Hockey College Division Player of the Year

The American Hockey Coaches Association (AHCA) announced that Gustavus Adolphus College senior forward Sarah Moe has been named the Women's Ice Hockey College Division Player of the Year. Moe, who was also honored as the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Player of the Year, helped the Gusties to a third place finish at the NCAA Division III Championships in Elmira, New York.

Moe, the Gusties all-time leading scorer with 80 goals and 64 assists for 144 points in 78 games, finished ninth in Division III in scoring this year with 31 goals and 27 assists for 58 points. She became only the fourth player in Gustavus women's hockey history to score 50 points in a season.

seasons of failing to make the MIAC postseason playoffs, the 3 primed to return to their previous role as a conference title the role that saw the Auggies win the first two MIAC regular season 8-99, 1999-2000) and advance to the first Division III national 100.

tually very excited (about this season), but we want to keep it quiet,” la, entering her eighth season as one of the pioneers of women’s the Midwest. Augsborg was the first college in the Midwest to men’s hockey as a varsity sport back in 1995.

problem facing Pohntilla is the multi-sport versatility of her players. ugsburg’s 22 women’s hockey players also play in fall sports, so ave to make the transition to hockey later than their teammates. e team gets together, the Auggies are aiming to improve from last -14-2 overall mark and 8-9-1 MIAC record—just one point away ng the five-team MIAC postseason playoffs.

as only one senior on the roster, and with a solid corps of players at is, the Auggies could emerge from under the radar screen as a solid for the conference title at the end of the season.

goal - Augsborg’s strength starts in goal, where the Auggies are eper than any other school in the MIAC. With four goalies on the uding All-MIAC honorable-mention selection Katie Fedoryk (Jr., nn.), the Auggies have a strong base to build from.

merged as Augsborg’s top goalie midway through the 2000-01 season, 3 majority of action last season, with a 3.43 goals-against-average ive percentage. She has a career 2.91 GAA and .911 save %.

Lots of talent returning - While six of the top 10 scorers were lost either t graduation or not returning to school, Augsborg still has a solid corps of young talent coming back this season.

Leading the way are Augsborg’s top two scorers from a year ago, forwards Lauren Chezick (So., Hastings, Minn.) and Melynda Kleewein (So., Anchorage, Alaska/Diamond HS). Chezick earned All-MIAC first-team and MIAC All-Rookie Team honors last season with a 22-point season (seven goals, 15 assists). She was 13th nationally in Division III in power-play goals (four). Kleewein was right behind Chezick with an 18-point (six goals, 12 assists) campaign to earn All-MIAC honorable-mention honors.

Laura Hoffman (Jr., Bloomington, Minn./Kennedy HS) will serve as a capta this season and lead the Auggie defense, while fellow junior Christina Hughes (Jr., Chaska, Minn.) is aiming to return to a regular forward role in the Auggie lineup this season.

A deep class of sophomores — 12 on the 22-player Auggie roster — will provide much of the strength that Pohntilla will enjoy with the club this season. Carrie Velenchenko (So., Maple Grove, Minn.) and Hannah Dietrich (St. Luverne, Minn.) emerged as solid forwards. Velenchenko scored six goals in h debut season, while Dietrich had three goals and three assists. Defender Laura Prasek (So., Fridley, Minn.) struggled with injuries last year, but is healthy th season.

Impressive transfers - Two transfers from Division III power Manhattanville (N.Y.), last year’s national runner-up, lead an impressive group of Auggie newcomers this season.

Annie Annunziato (Jr., Commack, N.Y.) was one of the top forwards in the nation last year in Manhattanville’s run to the national finals, finishing second on the team in scoring (13 goals, 29 assists, 42 points). She was fifth in the country in assists last year, earning ECAC All-Star honors.

Genevieve Allegrezza (Jr., Anchorage, Alaska/Service HS) was a part of Manhattanville’s first two seasons of hockey (1999-2001), when the Valiants quickly emerged as one of the nation’s top Division III programs. After earning second-team All-America honors and ECAC All-Star awards in her first two seasons (17 goals, 43 assists, 60 points), she took last season off before transferring to Augsborg.

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

marks just the fourth season of varsity status for the s, who have won 14 games over the past three ptains Alyson Sundberg (St. Paul, Minn.) and Jessie (Eagle River, Wisc.) will steer a Royals' team that, e their age, has a wealth of experience. In Sundberg augg, the Royals have their first possible All-Ameri-ndidates, according to Head Coach Jeff Palmer.

whole, our squad lacks depth," said Palmer, in his year with the club, "but has experienced players
s the board. Barring injury, we should be in competi-o make the playoffs for the first time."

New additions Elicia Shepard (Isanti, Minn.), Brooke Clark (Dodgeville, Wisc.), Jessica Nelson (Wyoming, Minn.) and Holly Novaczyk (Chanhassen, Minn.) appear to be strong incoming freshman with good playing experience.

Team chemistry will also play a big part in the season, as the Royals endeavor to put double digits in the win column for the first time.

"Our team is committed to representing the Lord and Bethel on and off the ice," Palmer stated. "We undertake the sport of hockey as a ministry."

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

a first-year head coach for a women's hockey team will find the ards bare due to graduation or a committed movement towards shing a new program. That will not be the case as Kerry Norman up behind the bench for Concordia in her first season as head Norman will find that the shelves are fully stocked and that the n is in great shape.

ason for Norman to be optimistic going into the season is that she ve a nucleus of players that won a school record 13 games in 02 and made the MIAC playoffs for the first time in school / . Of the 17 players on last year's roster, 13 will be returning for in 2002-03. Included in those 13 are five players that were named all-conference or all-conference honorable mention teams from a go. The team will also return all eight of their top scorers from last and their two-time all-conference goaltender. In addition to the 13 ing players, Norman has added a recruiting class that features 11 ayers. The Cobber kitchen is fully loaded and ready to cook the long winter season of 2002-03.

e fourth straight season Concordia will have one of the premiere nders in the MIAC. Senior Shyla Wilson (Cohasset, Minn./Grand . HS) returns to give the Cobbers a steadying force between the Wilson is a two-time, all-MIAC performer who has logged more ,100 minutes in goal for Concordia. She has a career save percent- .921 and is coming off a career-best 2.48 goals against average in 02.

rdia will again feature a high-octane offense that can put big rs on the board during any game. The team returns all eight of their rders from last season. Leading the offensive attack will be the na Connection". Katie Jacques (Sr., Tempe, Ariz./Corona Del Sol d Lindsay Kurtis (Jr., Phoenix, Ariz., Paradise Valley HS) have he top two scorers for Concordia for the past two seasons and massed over 167 points during that span. Jacques has been named all-conference team twice in her career, and Kurtis garnered the for the first time last season. Jacques has 101 points in her three-year career at Concordia, while Kurtis has 82 points during her first two seasons. Annie Knierem (Sr., Glasgow, Mont., Glasgow HS) gives the Cobbers a third, potent scoring threat to their attack, having scored at least 17 goals in the past two seasons. Last year she was named to the all-conference honorable mention team. All three players were in the top 15 in the league in scoring.

One of the focal points for Norman will be to shore up the defense. In the past, the Cobbers have struggled to hold upper-tier opponents from pounding the Cobber net with a barrage of shots. A quartet of returning players will help bolster the blueline. Jenei Estrada (Jr., Moreno Valley, Cali., Moreno Valley HS), Charity Hartzell (So., Oceanside, Cali.), Lynd Bell (So., Victorville, Cali., Victor Valley HS) and Sandra Rydén (Helsingborg, Sweden/Tycho Brahe HS) all have at least one year of experience under their belts which will help them deal with the fast pace of the top teams in the MIAC. The top two players from that corps will be Estrada and Rydén. Last season Estrada was named to the all-conference honorable mention team and was sixth in the league in scoring by a defenseman. Rydén will return for a fifth season and will bring a strong skating presence to the defense. She is in her fifth year for Concordia and her experience and knowledge of the league will help the team avoid the peaks and valleys that go with a young squad. Two newcomers should add depth and youthful exuberance to the group. Samantha Gunning (Fr., Baxter, Minn./Brainerd HS) and Kali Palmer (Fr. North Richland Hills, Tex./Birdville HS) have been impressive in the early weeks of practice.

The schedule for Concordia is a "good news, bad news" scenario. The good news is that the Cobbers will start out the season with their first four conference games at home and finish with four of their last six MIAC games at home. The bad news comes in the form of six tough road games in the middle of the year. Concordia will play the top three teams in the league from a year ago - Gustavus, St. Thomas and St. Mary's - all on the road. If Concordia can survive those six, tough road games and be successful throughout the rest of the 2002-03 MIAC schedule then Concordia could be staring at a feast come playoff time.

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

02 MIAC Coach of the Year Mike Carroll will once put a very strong team on the ice. The Gusties, who he 2002 MIAC title and finished third at the NCAA on III Championships, return virtually their entire and have added a solid recruiting class. The loss of on III Player of the Year Sarah Moe and all-confer-forward Kenzie Stensland leaves a hole in the attack e duo combined to score 54 goals last year), however, ll still has plenty of talent on the squad. Junior captain irst Team All-American Ellen Doyle leads the list of ers. Doyle, a defenseman, is a very smart player with g skills. She will not start practicing with the squad mid-December as she is spending the first semester ng in India. Two other all-conference performers i including junior forward Katie Deschneau and more defenseman Bobee Jo Lang. Deschneau had a out season last year with 17 goals and 19 assists for ints. Lang who played very well in the NCAA ament last spring will lead the defense until Doyle is. Other key returning forwards include senior captain Nicole Guimond, junior Ann Katz, the team's leading returning scorer with 20 goals and 20 assists for 40 points, senior Kirsten Olson and sophomore Laura Stypulkowski. Newcomer Blair Carlson is also expected to add to the Gustie scoring attack. On defense, Doyle and Lang will be joined by sophomores Dagney Johnson and Becky Neitzke, both of whom contributed significantly last season. In addition, freshman Abby Randall is expected to step in right away. In the nets, the Gusties have the luxury of returning two solid netminders. Junior Molly O' Donnell compiled a mark of 12-3-0 last season with a 1.21 goals against average, while sophomore Ann Kautzer posted an impressive mark of 11-2-2 with a 1.71 goals against average.

Gustavus will once again play one of the most difficult schedules in Division III. In addition to a challenging MIAC schedule, the Gusties will face nationally ranked squads from UW-Stevens Point, Williams, Manhattanville, and Middlebury.

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

their third season, the Hamline women's hockey has made great progress. This year, head coach Rob Burke hopes the team can make a leap and make a push at the MIAC Playoffs.

In the first two years, the program had some growing pains, going out but Burke believes he has the talent to jump a few rungs on the ladder.

years ago at this time," Burke said, "the players had just made a transition from club to varsity. There was no goalie on campus.

into year three, it seems to be the most complete varsity team. To develop the program, it's feeling more complete each year - not so much in a numbers point of view, but from a depth point of view."

To illustrate this, one would have to look no further than the team's netminders. Burke has three netminders that are competing for the job. Junior Teresa Wysocki (Plymouth, Minn.), sophomore Sarah Huberty (Belle Plaine, Minn.), and freshman Rachael Young (Columbia Heights, Minn.) all have a legitimate shot to be named the Pipers' No. 1 netminder.

Huberty spent the 1998-1999 season playing at co-conference rival St. Mary's where she was an All-MIAC selection.

Young played last year on the all-male North Dakota St. club team before transferring to Hamline.

Young spent the last two years leading the Wright County Blades. As a result, Young was an All-State Honorable Mention selection. She was one of five finalists for Minnesota High School Girls Hockey of the year.

"You build championship teams around goaltending," Burke said. "If you have strong goaltending, it gives confidence to every other position player on the ice. Your defense has more confidence in front of her to take that risk at the blue line. It just filters from the pipes on out."

Another of the Pipers' strengths will be the defensemen. Burke has brought in a talented defensive corps that not only plays smart in their own zone, but also has the ability to put pucks in the net. They will also be the most experienced on the team.

The team returns leading scorer and assistant captain in sophomore defenseman Nichelle Simon. The Duluth, Ga. native tallied 10 goals and three assists for 13 points.

The club also returns junior defenseman Angie Erickson. Erickson led the team in scoring during their inaugural season. Last season, the team co-captain was tied for third in scoring with five goals and six helpers.

Junior Ashley Hounslow (Tigard, Ore.) and freshman Allison Rime (Columbia Heights, Minn.) will add depth to the defensive corps.

Offensively, the Pipers will look to forwards Emily Gross and Jeanne Schipper-Jobe. Gross, from West Saint Paul, Minn., scored eight goals and three assists a year ago while co-captain Schipper-Jobe tallied six goals and three helpers. Incoming forwards Cathy Gelinas (South Windsor, Conn.) and Heidi Spensley (Columbia Heights, Minn.) are among several new forwards the Pipers will be looking to for more offensive punch this season.

"The coaching staff and the players are all very excited about our team this year. We're really looking forward to this season," said Burke.

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

is only “yesterday” that the College of Saint Benedict ice hockey to its growing athletic department in 1996. The Blazers begin their sixth season with a new look, and outlook.

It move into a “new” home on 8th Street in St. Cloud ... the pal Athletic Complex is one of central Minnesota’s top

The move to “the MAC” was driven primarily by the proximity to campus. The team will trim its daily practice time to under 30 minutes to and from the arena.

new” look continues with the coaching staff. Joining third-year head coach Tom Peart is Kevin Sinclair, and three student assistant coaches in Robyn Jacobs-Spaulding, Jeff Hancock and Jeff Burns.

Peart’s leadership will also be new; juniors Anna Richardson, Dykhoff and Anne Sawyer have been selected to wear the “C” on their jersey.

Peart notes that is not new are the 13 returning veterans from last season. Dykhoff, Sawyer, junior Sarah Ladd, and sophomore Michelle Rezac look to be the heart of the team’s defense, while the forward position will be led by Richardson, and a great group of sophomores including Katie Ponsolle, Amy Glaeser, Sarah Miller, Lisa Sullivan, and Susan Engel. The nets will be guarded by junior Kate Hall and sophomore Nikki Schwartz. The team’s balance of experience and youth, including eight returning first-year players CSB will be working to make this squad the best it ever.

The strength of the Blazers will be its speed. Fans watching the team play this winter will see a great deal of puck movement and aggressiveness all over the ice,” according to Peart. “They will also recognize the legacy of the past teams, namely- tenacity, an incredible work ethic and the ability to have fun while playing the great game of hockey.”

The favorites entering the conference season will be Gustavus, last year’s MIAC regular season champion and St. Mary’s, the conference play-off champion a year ago. Each of these teams are returning a core group of players extensive experience. St. Thomas, Augsburg, St. Catherine’s and Concordia-Moorhead Moorhead all look to be improved this season, while Bethel and Hamline will make the conference as competitive as ever. An added incentive is that the winner of the MIAC play-offs once again gains an automatic berth in the NCAA Division III National Championships.

Saint Ben’s, with their experienced returning players, including two top-notch goaltenders, and an influx of new talent, believes his team can challenge for the conference title this winter.

It is Peart’s hope that Saint Ben’s will step up and become one of the premier women’s Division III ice hockey programs in the state. He believes with the MAC as their new home and their new locker room, the Blazers will have a better chance of attracting the top recruits across the state and around the nation.

The Blazers open up their season on November 2nd with a non-conference road game at the University of Wisconsin-Superior. The team will then open up at the MAC on Sunday, November 17th against Gustavus.

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

College of St. Catherine Wildcats will look to infuse young talent as they introduce first-year players to the team after graduating only one starting senior last season. The team has exceptional leadership in team captains Hayes, Eichten and Lunda, who will set the pace for the season. In her first season as Head Coach, Mary Brown looks to improve on last year's seventh place finish in the M.I.A.C.

Saint Mary's University

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

“I’ll have to forgive Saint Mary’s University women’s hockey coach Duncan Ryhorchuk if he seems a little preoccupied of late. It happens to keep checking over his shoulders while you are holding a conversation with him, cut him a little slack — he’s not being rude, just cautious.

After all, when you are the coach of a team that has participated in eight national tournaments and is the defending MIAC playoff champion, you might as well spend your days walking around with a big net on your back.

Ryhorchuk doesn’t want anyone sneaking up on him. “When you have had the type of success that we have had the last few years, everyone is gunning for you,” said Ryhorchuk, whose team placed third in the AWCHA national tournament in 2001 and fourth for the NCAA’s first-ever Division III national tournament a year ago. “When we play most of the other teams in the conference — St. Thomas or St. Ben’s, Concordia, Bethel ... — they are going to want to knock us off, so we have to make sure we are ready to play every game. For the team the Cardinals will certainly be gunning for this season is the regular-season conference champion Gustavus.

Gustavus swept the season series against Saint Mary’s (winning 3-0, 3-0), but lost to SMU in the conference tournament title game (2-0) after knocking SMU out of the national tournament with a 2-0 win. “I think that Gustavus and Saint Mary’s are probably still the teams (in the conference),” admitted Ryhorchuk. “But the gap between them and the rest of the conference is much smaller. The conference is going to be much tougher, top to bottom.”

and keep that target on their backs — they are going to need encore performances from some of their top players, and breakout performances from some of their supporting cast.

“We lost some of our top players (to graduation), but we’ve also got a lot of talent and experience returning,” said Ryhorchuk, who is without the services of four-time all-MIAC selections Monica Hayes and Missy Westergren — two of six players gone from last year’s 21-6-1 team. “We’re going to need to find some players to try and fill the void (left by those graduated seniors), but the core of the team is still there.”

And what a core it is.

Not only do the Cardinals return a two-time All-American goalie in Missie Meemken (St. Cloud, Minn. / 23 GP, 1.82 GAA, .934 save percentage) and a solid defensive corps led by Monica Deringer (Brooklyn Park, Minn. / 1 goal, 8 assists, 9 points), but they also return five of their top six scorers — including team leaders Emily Kearns (Hopkins, Minn. / 32 goals, 18 assists, 50 points) and Christy Hicks (Bloomington, Minn. / 15 goals, 15 assists, 30 points).

In other words, opponents may be gunning to shoot down SMU, but the Cardinals are fully loaded to return fire.

“Last year, our goal at the start of the season was to get back to the national tournament,” said Ryhorchuk, whose team ended the regular-season with eight straight wins, before beating St. Thomas (5-3) and Gustavus (2-1) in the MIAC tournament.

“Obviously, getting back to the national tournament again is one of our goals. But this year, we don’t want to just get there — our goal is the Final Four and playing for a national championship.”

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

St. Olaf College is excited to have returning letterwinners on a solid core of women on their roster for 2002-03. After playing seven skaters and a goalie in the inaugural season just two years ago, the team and coaching staff are excited to have a full roster of twenty four skaters. In addition, on the Ole women are returning thirteen players, including All-Conference standout Sarah Ray, plus Kate Barnett and Andrea Smith, both All-conference honorable mention award winners last year. Coach Osiecki and his staff have added a significant recruiting class of seven new players to the roster for 2001-02. The team is very excited about the opportunities to experience vast improvement individually and as a team and to play in the competitive CCHA Conference.

The Oles also welcome Coach Laura Slominski to their coaching staff this year, a former hockey standout from the University of Minnesota. Laura will coach the forwards and will help with recruiting. She played for Head Coach Tom Osiecki at Burnsville during the 1995-96 season, when the team was the girls state runner-up team.

The Oles are building on a nucleus of returning players and a promising young group of incoming players to improve on last year's season.

2002-03 Season Preview and Notes

ar five of varsity women's hockey at St. Thomas, and for the first preseason story can realistically mention the Tommies and the championship race in the same breath.

ars that Gustavus is still the team to beat, and St. Mary's is still us, but St. Thomas coach Kevin Gorg said he finally has the nce and depth to play 60 minutes even up with the conference's m.

can develop as a team and get better every day, I think we can ge Gustavus for the MIAC championship," Gorg said. "This is by best team we've ever had at St. Thomas and this was the best ng class we've ever brought in."

ommies have reached the MIAC play offs and placed third overall onference the last two seasons. The first four St. Thomas teams 12, 10-11-1, 16-9-1 and 14-9-3.

ason, playing the toughest schedule in school history, the Toms 5-6-3 but won nine of their last 12. They went 1-8-1 vs. illy ranked teams and 13-1-2 vs. everyone else. They lost to il playoff champion St. Mary's 5-3 in the MIAC semifinals to ir season 14-9-3. They fell behind St. Mary's 3-0 in the first but pulled within 4-3 in the third period before allowing an net goal in the final minute.

01-02 Tommies allowed 57 goals in 26 games, and just 24 goals in st 12 games. They played most of the season without 2000-01 AC forward Jessica Christopherson, who was sidelined with an She had 40 points (27 goals, 13 assists) as a freshman. pherson's status for this season is uncertain.

omas returns two All-MIAC forwards — junior Tomery Stolz and

Stolz became the Tommies' career scoring leader last season. She led the team with 23 goals and 39 points and now has 83 points in two seasons. In MIAC play, she was fifth in goals (16) and tied for seventh in points. Petermeier had 14 goals and eight assists. In MIAC play, Mikolai was 8-1-2 with a 1.16 GAA and .946 save %. Overall, she was 10-3-2 with a 1.74 GAA and a .923 save %.

Other strong returners include sophomore forwards Tedra Mitchell (3g-6a in 2001-02) and Katie Strassener (3g-6a in 2001-02); senior forward Kelly Kopel (24g-20a on career); junior forward Jordan Benson (4g-3a in 2001-02); and defensemen Alison Holland (13g-19a in two seasons), a senior, and Rachel Reinhardt (3g-10a in 2001-02), a sophomore.

Leading the recruiting class are four freshmen, led by all-staters Maureen Hardwick of Warroad and Tanaya Reitz of Moorhead. Both were Minnesota Ms. Hockey finalists and turned down Division I scholarship offers to come to St. Thomas.

Hardwick has already made a splash on the UST campus — she was the conference meet medalist in MIAC women's golf Oct. 6-7 to lead the Tommies to the team championship. She also was an all-state prep softball player.

Other top newcomers include forward Sue Heinmiller of Eden Prairie, who was slowed by injuries as a prep senior, and goalie Becky Kilpatrick, who helped Burnsville place third in the state tournament.

The Tommies' depth will help overcome graduation losses of forward Heather Martin (77 career points), three-year starting goalie Karissa Stapf, four-year players Angie Schulte and Jill Goral.
