

Anne Sikorra, St. Catherine

Week of: 2002-05-06

College of St. Catherine junior Anne Sikorra (Redmond, Wash.) improved on last years runner up finish, met an NCAA provisional qualifying standard by winning the MIAC Hepathlon Championship with 4,214 points.

Kelli Tranby

Week of: 2002-04-30

Track - Concordia-Moorhead College senior Kelli Tranby (Moorhead, Minn.) won the 100 meters at the NDSU Open on Monday, April 22 in a NCAA Provisional national qualifying 12.36 seconds. The time ranks Kelli 18th nationally, #1 in the MIAC and broke the school record. Tranby also qualified provisionally for the NCAA nationals in the long jump at a different NDSU Meet on Sunday, April 28 with a leap of 18'6". She ranks ninth in the nation and first in the MIAC. Kelli is the 2002 MIAC long jump champion and the defending MIAC outdoor long jump champion.

Jenny Ewertz, Saint Benedict

Week of: 2002-04-22

Track - College of Saint Benedict senior Jenny Ewertz (Hunter, ND/Northern Cass HS) was named MIAC female track athlete of the week. Ewertz won both the 100m and 200m on Saturday. She broke her old school record when she ran 12.48 in the 100m. Currently, her time of 12.48 in the 100 and 26.38 in the 200 rank number one in the MIAC. Ewertz also ran on the 4x400 and 4x100 relay team.

Megan Daymont, St. Olaf

Week of: 2002-04-15

Track - St. Olaf College's junior Megan Daymont, (Northfield, Minn.) met two national qualifying standards this week at the Wartburg Select meet. She ran 4:37.88 in the 1500 and 2:14.66 in the 800. Daymont now ranks #1 in both events in the MIAC and number 2nd and 3rd respectively in the NCAA poll. Daymont also ran a leg on the 4 X 400 that ranks #1 in the MIAC with a hand-held split of 58.9 seconds.

Julie Marek, St. Catherine

Week of: 2002-04-22

Field - College of St. Catherine junior Julie Marek (Shakopee, Minn.) was named MIAC female field athlete of the week. Mareck placed second in the the hammer throw at the Maniou Track Classic with a toss of 140'10". She currently is ranked second in the MIAC performance list. Last year, as a sophomore Mareck placed second in the hammer at the MIAC championships.

Mariah Mougey

Week of: 2002-04-15

Field - Concordia-Moorhead College teammates Mariah Mougey and Erica Eastley were selected as co-field event athletes-of-the-week. Mougey, a junior from Enderlin, ND, won the hammer at the St. Benedict/St. John's Quintangular with a provisional national qualifyng 153-2. Her personal best throw ranks her first in the MIAC, by 28 feet, and 11th in the NCAA. Eastley, a freshman from LaMoure, ND, in the first throw of her collegiate career threw a provisional national qualifying 129-7 in the javelin. She broke the new javelin school record, ranks number one in the MIAC, by 7 feet, and ranks number 10 in the NCAA. Eastley was also first in the discus and Mougey was second throwing from a rain-soaked circle.

Erica Eastley

Week of: 2002-04-15

Field - Concordia-Moorhead College teammates Mariah Mougey and Erica Eastley were selected as co-field event athletes-of-the-week. Mougey, a junior from Enderlin, ND, won the hammer at the St. Benedict/St. John's Quintangular with a provisional national qualifyng 153-2. Her personal best throw ranks her first in the MIAC, by 28 feet, and 11th in the NCAA. Eastley, a freshman from LaMoure, ND, in the first throw of her collegiate career threw a provisional national qualifying 129-7 in the javelin. She broke the new javelin school record, ranks number one in the MIAC, by 7 feet, and ranks number 10 in the NCAA. Eastley was also first in the discus and Mougey was second throwing from a rain-soaked circle.