Posted: May 08, 2013

ST. PAUL, Minn. -- The Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC) announced the 2012 MIAC Women's Tennis Awards Tuesday, including the All-Conference teams, All-MIAC Sportsmanship team and top player and coach honors. After an unforgettable run to the MIAC regular season championship, St. Catherine University was appropriately honored with the top coach and student-athlete awards.

The 2012 Chris Evert Award was given to St. Catherine senior Michaela Burroughs (Waterloo, Neb./Millard North). The award annually recognizes a senior tennis student-athlete with outstanding sportsmanship and exemplary athletic, academic and humanitarian accomplishments.

In addition to all her off-the-court qualifications, Burroughs had a marvelous senior season to help lead the Wildcats to their first-ever conference tennis title. In addition to the Chris Evert Award, Burroughs also earned All-Conference honors as both a singles and a doubles player. This season, Burroughs had a 12-4 record with a 7-3 conference mark while holding down SCU's No. 2 singles spot. She also teamed up with Maria Koval to go 12-2 overall with just one conference loss (9-1) at No. 2 doubles. She led SCU to the No. 1 seed in the MIAC Women's Tennis Playoffs as well as an undefeated regular season (10-0) in the MIAC.

Burroughs coach, Ben Hageseth, is the recipient of the MIAC Coach-of-the-Year award for the second season in a row, after sharing it with Carleton's Luciano Battaglini in 2012. Hageseth is in his fifth season leading the Wildcats, and the 2013 season was certainly an unforgettable one for his club.

Hageseth led St. Catherine to the first MIAC regular season women's tennis championship in school history, and its first-ever No. 1 seed in the MIAC Women's Tennis Playoffs. His team went nearly undefeated overall with a 15-2 record, and the Wildcats were a perfect 10-0 in MIAC regular season play. Hageseth coached seven total All-MIAC selections in 2013 - three singles players and four doubles picks.

MIAC Playoff champion Carleton led the MIAC with five singles selections and nine total All-Conference picks. St. Catherine, Gustavus and St. Thomas each had seven total, with three singles and three doubles selections apiece. St. Olaf had three singles selections, Bethel had two doubles honorees and Saint Benedict had one singles pick. The singles team had five seniors, three juniors, four sophomores and six first-year players, while the doubles team had six seniors, three juniors, five sophomores and four first-years.

As part of a conference-wide sportsmanship initiative, the MIAC announced the seventh annual All-MIAC Sportsmanship team for women's tennis. Members of the All-MIAC Sportsmanship team are selected by their coaches and teammates as individuals who demonstrate ideals of positive sportsmanship both on and off the field of competition.
