Augsburg College

Head Coach:	Dennis Barker (9th season)
2001 Record:	7th at MIAC Championship, 12th at NCAA regional

Season Preview:	There's high hopes for the Augsburg College cross country program in 2002. Both the men's and women's squad return most of their top runners, with just six letterwinners gone from the team. It's that corps of runners that has head coach Dennis Barker confident for improvement in his ninth season coaching the Auggies. "Both teams are quite young, but we return a good group of quality runners," Barker said. Augsburg's men's squad scored one of its best seasons in school history in 2001, with a seventh-place finish in the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference meet and its best-ever finish, 12th, in the NCAA Division III Central Regional. With just one of the top six runners lost to graduation, the Auggies have a solid shot of improving even more this season. "This is certainly a group with the ability to improve upon our seventh-place (conference) finish from last year. With no seniors, we have the potential to move into the top five in the MIAC over the next few years," Barker said. Ryan Nevin (Jr., Barron, Wis.) is Augsburg's top returning runner. Last year, he continued to show steady improvement as Augsburg's No. 2 runner, breaking the 27-minute barrier (8,000 meters) with a 26:48 effort in October, just the 14th time an Auggie runner has run a sub-27-minute 8,000 meter race in the last four seasons. This year, Nevin will be counted on to be a team leader. George Spears (Jr., Minneapolis, Minn./South HS) came back from an injury-plagued 2000 season to shine in 2001, setting a career-best with a 27:47 effort in last season's regional meet. Barker said he expects Spears to have a "breakthrough season" in 2002. Alan Wilson (So., Arden Hills, Minn./Mounds View HS) and Dan Vogel (So., LaCrescent, Minn.) both showed steady improvement in both cross country and track and field, and should continue that improvement in their sophomore campaigns. Wilson set personal bests three times, including a 27:33 in the regional meet, while Vogel recorded a 28:16.2 at the MIAC meet. Jason Edwards (Jr., Fergus Falls, Minn.) will also be expected to improve upon his times, as will Tony Schaden (So., Minneapolis, Minn./South HS). Several promising recruits join the Auggies, led by Riley Conway (So., Lake City, Minn.), a transfer from St. John's and a three-time all-state competitor in high school. Erik Lundberg (Fr., Roseville, Minn./Mounds View HS) was the No. 5 runner on a Mounds View state tournament team last year in his first season of competitive cross country, Eric Foley (Fr., Minneapolis, Minn./South HS) was a solid runner at Minneapolis South, and Abe Dominguez (Fr., Rosemount, Minn.) was a top runner in his high school career. Bethel College
Head Coach:	Jim Timp (6th season)
2001 Record:	10th place at MIAC Championships
Key Returners:	Joe Boone, SR, Stone Lake, Wis. Brent Warren, SR, Paddock Lake, Wis. John Lawrey, SO, Apple Valley, Minn. Adam Erickson, SO, Roseville, Minn. Nick Jones, SO, Kearney, Neb.

Season Preview:	After finishing in 10th place at the MIAC meet last fall, coach JimTimp is optimistic as he looks ahead to the 2002 season and beyond. The squad welcomes back 12 runners, including a very talented group of sophomores. Last year, nine runners ran under 30 minutes in races throughout the season, which is a Bethel record. Five of Bethel's top seven from last year return and will give the Royals a solid foundation for the 2002 campaign. "In the past, we have had trouble keeping our runners out for more than one or two years. This group is committed to the program and has the fire and discipline to achieve what no other Bethel cross country teams have achieved" Timp said. With only three seniors, the squad is very young, but the leadership of the upperclassmen and the addition of some talented newcomers, the Royals hope to springboard into the top five or six in the MIAC. Timp continued, "Every year it gets a little better in regard to being competitive in this conference. The numbers speak for themselves. My first couple of years here, we could barely field a team, now we are looking at maintaining 20 to 25 runners. My philosophy has always been with quantity. Quality will follow close behind. This is the group that is going to turn the corner for Bethel cross country."

Junior Matt Hooley, fourth in the MIAC Championships, leads the way. Besides the highly touted top five, senior co-captains Bryan Donald and Tom Church also return. Donald is coming off a highly successful track season where he was conference 1,500 meter champion. Church looks to regain his sophomore season form after an injury plagued his junior year. Three first-year runners, Stephen Jahn, Stephen Harris and Charles Yin competed in the Minnesota State High School Cross Country Championships last fall and should contribute substantially. Four of the Cobbers top five runners from a year ago are back to push the team towards a top-five finish in the MIAC. Concordia will be led by a trio of runners from last year's squad. The top finisher from last year's MIAC championships, Nick Myran (So., West Concord, Minn.) will benefit from a year's experience and understanding race techniques at the college level. Senior Kirk Nelson (Hettinger, N.Dak.) was consistently one of the Cobbers top two finishers from 2001, and won the 3000 meter steeplechase last spring at the MIAC outdoor track and field championships. Jim Monson (Sr., Maple Plain, Minn.) rounds out the trio of experienced runners that return for Concordia. The Cobbers will also be benefitted by the return of junior Ben Nylander who sat out last season due to an injury. As a first year runner in 2000, Nylander was one of Concordia's mainstays in every meet. Follow Cobber Men's Cross Country all season long at: www.cord.edu/dept/sports/mx02

There is a core group returning that Jerome's expects to give quality leadership to the team. That group includes seniors Dave Bernhardson and Jake Moen, junior Drew Scanlan and sophomores Brent Magnusson and James Sorenson. This entire group ran at the MIAC Championships last year except Scanlan who was out with an injury. Season Preview:	The Fighting Piper men's cross country team will look to improve upon an outstanding 2001 season. The Pipers, led by All-American selection Tom Kreger and All Region selection Mike Baker, finished second in the always tough MIAC conference and helped Hamline to earn a trip to the NCAA division III national cross country championships. "We want to get better," said head coach Paul Schmaedeke. "This is a tremendously devoted group of guys who are going to compete everytime out and we're excited about what we can achieve this year." Along with Kreger and Baker, look for Peter Kuznia, Justin Steen and Zach Bullis to make their mark for the Piper effort this season.

Macalester loses its top runner, Jude Henningsgaard, to graduation, but has a very young and talented team. Sophomores Bo Rydze and Eric Olson were the team's second and third runners last year as a couple of the MIAC top newcomers. Peter Dilon is another key returner, while Coach Pasche is looking for several first-year runners to step in and contribute immediately, led by Sky Brandt. Other fast newcomers include Roscoe Sopiwnik, Ben Johnson and Jordan Selbo.

Saint Mary's University
Head Coach:	John Skemp (12th season)
2001 Record:	11th at MIAC Championship

Key Returners:	Jim Baertsch (Jr., Winona, Minn.) B.J. Klenke (Sr., Jordan, Minn.) Keith Pieschek (Jr., Sturgeon Bay, Wis.) Andy Marter (Sr., Winona, Minn.) Luke Hofmann (Sr., St. Louis, Mo.)
Season Preview:	For 11 years, John Skemp has been the head coach of the Saint Mary's University cross country teams. Yet, in all that time, Skemp has made sure to make it perfectly clear who the real coach of the Cardinal teams was - the runners themselves. "I do all the organizational work, make sure the meets are set and make sure the workouts are prepared," said Skemp. "But what it really comes down to is, it's the athletes who have to do the work." And from all early indications, this year's teams have definitely done their summertime homework. "I like what I've seen so far," said Skemp. "It's obvious who hit the workouts hard in the summer and who didn't, and those that did will be at a real advantage." Unlike years past, depth will be a real plus for Skemp this season, as both his men's and women's rosters boast 12 runners - including nine returners on the men's side and seven on the women's side. Junior Jim Baertsch (Winona, Minn.), the Cardinals' top runner in six of their seven meets, leads an experienced group of men runners. Seniors Luke Hofmann (St. Louis, Mo.), B.J. Klenke (Jordan, Minn.) and Michael Uffenbeck (Drummond, Wis), along with junior Keith Pieschek (Sturgeon Bay, Wis.) and sophomore Pat Polasek (Glendale Heights, Wis.) all saw extensive action SMU's top seven, while freshmen Jim Bansley (Chicago, Ill.), Andy Boisjolie (Austin, Minn.) and Luke Thompson (Lake City, Wis.) have also shown the ability to compete at the collegiate level. The Oles hope for a strong finish at the MIAC Championships and the Central Region Championships. They are hopeful for a berth to nationals, since the NCAA Division III Cross Country Championships are hosted at St. Olaf on November 23, 2002. Coach Bill Thornton will again take the helm, hoping to guide the Oles to their first MIAC title in over twenty years. Thornton said "we saw promise in last year's effort but I share the team's belief that the fall of 2002 might be a breakthrough season for the black and gold harriers."
