

to the runnerup spot in the MIAAC's cumulative standings. The Scots wound up with 62 points, mainly on the strength of three championships and one runnerup spot.

Mankato's Indians, who were runnerup to St. Cloud's Huskies last year by a five-point margin, won the all-around title this year by six points. The Indians finished with 49½ points in eight sports to 43½ for St. Cloud. The Huskies didn't field a swimming team.

Other MIAAC champions were Augsburg, which repeated in basketball, and Concordia, which unseated St. John's in wrestling. Minnesota-Duluth had three second place finishes, but the Bulldogs, like St. Mary's, do not compete in three sports. Concordia wound up third in the MIAAC overall picture with 52½ points.

Points were awarded on a 10-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis in the MIAAC and a 10-5-4-3-2-1 basis in the NIC.
