

and 7 for third. In the NIC, it was formerly on a 10-5-4, etc. basis, but this year it is 15-10-7-5-3-1.

The Scots finished with a 10½ point margin on runner-up St. Thomas, which captured the baseball title, was runnerup in hockey and accumulated 64 points. Using last year's point figures, the Scots would have held a slim 57½ to 57 margin over the Toms.

Augsburg, which won its third straight MIAC cage crown, finished third with 56 points, one better than Gustavus Adolphus. Winona's Warriors piled up
